ANTHON'S NISI PRIUS REPORTS.

Second Edition. Price $4.

Judges presiding: Chief Justice, James Kent; Justices, Van Ness, Thompson, Spencer and Yates.

Mr. ANTHON has been equally well known as an eminent and successful practitioner, and distinguished law writer, for the last forty years. His cotemporaries, many of whom are now dead, have been men who have honored and adorned the highest walks of the profession, both on the bench and at the bar. This volume of Nisi Prius Reports was always much admired; and the importance and value of the cases contained in it immediately caused it to be extensively cited and quoted in the opinions of judges and in law works. The present edition was carefully revised and annotated by Mr. ANTHON himself.

ARCHBOLD'S CIVIL PLEADING.Second Edition. Price $4.ARCHBOLD'S PLEADING AND EVIDENCE.Seventh Edition. Two Vols. Price $12.*

"The first part of this work is devoted to criminal practice; and the second part to the discussion of the several crimes, the indictment for each offence, and the requisite evidence. It will be found to embrace the entire field of Criminal Law; every proceeding, from the arrest of the offender to his final punishment, being minutely detailed with forms and directions for every supposable case.

"ARCHBOLD has been a standard authority for the last half century. Fourteen successive English and half as many American editions, show how it has been appreciated.

"A very considerable period of time and a great deal of labor have been expended upon this edition. Most of the notes have been entirely re-written; and all of them have been re-modeled and re-arranged. A thorough analysis of each subject has been made, which, with a very full index to each volume, it is thought will furnish all needful facilities for reference. The matter has been a good deal condensed, by omitting whatever seemed theoretical rather than practical, by dispensing with such of the English statutes as have no bearing upon American law or practice. The notes in their present form contain, however, a large amount of new matter, and several subjects are introduced which were not treated in the former edition. The authorities have been carefully re-examined, and all of the reported, and numerous manuscript cases, in each of the several states, down to the date of publication, added. The criminal statutes of sixteen of the states have been digested and distributed under the appropriate heads, together with such English statutes, the construction of which, from their similarity to our own, seemed likely to aid the American practitioner. A concise outline of all the more important cases cited by Mr. Archbold has also been given; thus presenting, in a convenient and accessible form, all of the leading English criminal cases."

BARBOUR'S CHANCERY REPORTS.Three Vols. Price $15.*

REPORTS OF CASES ARGUED AND DETERMINED IN THE COURT OF CHANCERY OF THE STATE of New York, from 1845 to 1847. By OLIVER L. BARBOUR, counselor at law, successor of Paige, and in continuation of Johnson, Hopkins and Paige. These decisions are considered the ablest and most reliable of any in our country. R. H. Walworth, Chancellor.

BARBOUR'S CRIMINAL TREATISE.Second Edition. Price $5.*

THE MAGISTRATE'S CRIMINAL LAW: A PRACTICAL TREATISE ON THE JURISDICTION, DUTY and authority of the Justices of the Peace in the State of New York in Criminal Courts. Containing, also, a Summary of the law relative to Crimes and Punishments, with an Appendix of Forms of Proceedings. By OLIVER L. BARBOUR, counselor at law. Second edition. Much enlarged, with Notes and References and additional forms.

The second edition of Barbour's Criminal Treatise has been carefully revised by the distinguished author, with important additions. It is too well known to require from us an extended notice. Suffice it to say, that it is an elementary work of great merit, and that although prepared more especially for the state of New York, it will be found almost equally useful in every state in the Union.

BARBOUR'S LAW OF SET-OFF.Price $2.*

BARBOUR'S SUPREME COURT REPORTS.Twenty-four Vols. Price $84.*

BRIGHT'S HUSBAND AND WIFE.Two Vols. Price $10.*

A TREATISE ON THE LAW OF HUSBAND AND WIFE, AS RESPECTS PROPERTY. PARTLY founded on Roper's Treatise, and comprising Jacob's Notes and additions thereto, by JOHN EDWARD BRIGHT, Esq., of the Inner Temple, barrister at law. With copious Notes and References to the American Decisions, and also an Appendix, containing the Statutes of every state in the Union, in relation to the rights and property of females before and after marriage. By RALPH LOCKWOOD, counselor at law.

[From the AMERICAN LAW JOURNAL.]

The last edition of Roper's Husband and Wife was that of 1826. The English Law Magazine and Reporter of May, 1849, observes that the "want of a new edition had for many years been felt by the profession." The progress of the United States in wealth, of society in refinement, and of judicial and legislative policy to secure property to wives, have increased the want of a new publication here, embracing the recent decisions on this interesting relation. We have not had leisure to examine into the merits of the notes by the American editor, but of the work of Mr. Bright we can cheerfully add our testimony to that of the English Reviewer that "for completeness and soundness it is likely to become the text-book upon the law of husband and wife."

Tompkins. A more able and independent Judiciary never existed at any one period, in any court of the United States.

CONNECTICUT DIGEST.974 Pages. Price $7.*

A DIGEST OF THE REPORTED DECISIONS OF THE SUPERIOR COURT, AND OF THE SUPREME Court of Errors of the State of Connecticut, from the organization of said courts to the present time. By THOMAS W. WATERMAN, counselor at law.

[From the HARTFORD DAILY COURANT.]

Banks & Brothers, law publishers, 144 Nassau street, New York, have issued a handsome volume entitled "A Digest of the Reported Decisions of the Superior Court, and of the Supreme Court of Errors of the State of Connecticut, from the organization of said courts to the present time, by Thomas W.

Waterman, Counsellor-at-Law." These cases cover sixty-eight years, beginning with 1789, and closing with 1857. The Digest includes Kirby, Root, five volumes of Day's Reports, and twenty-four volumes of Connecticut Reports. Mr. Waterman, the author of the Digest, seems to have done his work with his usual fidelity. He says he has verified the page of every reference to the Connecticut Reports after the matter was in type. He has avoided the practice often followed by compilers, of putting several distinct matters under one general head, and has assigned each subject a title, to catch the eye in the table of contents, and direct the inquirer. Mr. Waterman is a practiced hand, and knows just what the lawyer wants, and what he does not want. Though a New York man, he evinces a familiarity with Connecticut law, and Connecticut history and practice, that leads us to believe his work will be a favorite with Connecticut men. Any business man who desires to know what are the laws of Connecticut, other than those in our statute book, should be referred, unhesitatingly, to this Connecticut Digest.

[From the NEW YORK COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER.]

Connecticut has the honor to be the first state of the Union in which judicial decisions were reported. The first American law report was edited by Mr. Kirby, and printed at Litchfield, in 1789. Root's Connecticut Reports were published ten years later, and they were followed by Day's Reports, a series which was continued at intervals until 1853, when the present Reporter of the Connecticut decisions, Mr. Matson, commenced his useful labors. There are now thirty-two volumes of Connecticut Reports in all, containing about three thousand five hundred cases, and the substance of these has been neatly epitomized, arranged and indexed by Mr. Waterman, in one stout volume of 974 pages octavo. At the end of each case of special significance or importance, he has noted whether it was in reversal or affirmance of the decision of the court below; he has also noted the cases which have been overruled, denied or doubted. The facilities for reference to every part of the volume are ample, and we consider it one of the best arranged Digests of Reports we have ever examined. To all Connecticut lawyers, it will, of course, be indispensable, and to lawyers in other states it will be scarcely less useful. It is justly remarked that "the Connecticut decisions are among the cited authorities of every text-book; and no trial of any magnitude can take place, in which very material aid may not be derived from precedents drawn from this source." It is one of the best evidences of the esteem in which the Connecticut Reports are held, that some of them have been reprinted in England.

CONNECTICUT REPORTS

Second Edition. Twenty-one Vols. Price $105.

REPORTS OF CASES ARGUED AND DETERMINED IN THE SUPREME COURT OF ERRORS OF THE State of Connecticut, from 1814, inclusive; prepared and published in pursuance of a Statute Law of the State. Second edition, corrected, with Notes and References to the several State Reports. By the Hon. THOMAS DAY.

No lawyer should be without these reports. The railroad cases alone in them are worth the price of the set. They comprehend a period of seventy years, or, in other words, almost our entire existence as an independent people. They therefore contain precedents for all the various exigencies which have from time to time arisen since the origin of our government. Their utility and the high appreciation in which they are held, are shown by the frequency of their citation, not only in all the law books of the day, but in cases on trial, and in the written opinions of judges.

sheriff, coroner and constable, in the state, ought to have a copy; and magistrates will find it extremely useful and convenient. Lawyers will have it, as a matter of course.

DUNLAP'S PALEY'S AGENCY.

Fourth Edition. Price $5.

A TREATISE ON THE LAW OF PRINCIPAL AND AGENT, CHIEFLY WITH REFERENCE TO MERCANTILE TRANSACTIONS. By WILLIAM PALEY, of Lincoln's Inn, Esq., barrister at law. With considerable additions by J. H. LLOYD, of the Inner Temple, Esq., barrister at law. Fourth American edition, with extensive additions, referring to and embracing all the cases, both English and American, by JOHN A. DUNLAP, Esq., counselor at law, and brought down to the present time, with very full notes to English and American Decisions, by THOMAS W. WATERMAN, Esq., counselor at law.

This edition by PALEY and LLOYD by DUNLAP will be found, in comparison with other treatises on this subject, to be a complete substitute for all of them, containing several thousand cases not referred to by any other American author; it is, in fact, an embodiment of all the decisions on the law of Principal and Agent.

[FROM THE NEW YORK COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER.]

This is the fourth American edition of Paley's admirable work on Agency, which has been universally recognized as the leading authority among all the text-books on that subject, since its first appearance in 1811. Mr. Justice Story constantly refers to it in his Commentaries, and Mr. Hammond's Treatise is considered a mere rechauffe of Paley's work as edited by Lloyd. Two previous editions were greatly enlarged by the notes of Lloyd in England, and of Dunlap in this country, and Mr. Waterman has now made numerous important addenda, introducing notes of more than eighteen hundred relevant cases decided during the nine years that have elapsed since the publication of the third edition by Dunlap. Mr. Waterman's editorial task has been performed with the same thoroughness and ability that characterized his excellent editions of Archbold's Criminal Pleadings and Evidence, Adams on Ejectment, Dart on Vendors, Eden on Injunctions, &c., and his valued works on New Trials, and on the Civil Jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace. He displays the most indefatigable industry in research, and the utmost impartiality and discrimination in the application of new decisions and judicial dicta to the modification or support of the text. The original work, with all its additions by previous editors, has been greatly enriched by his labors, and may be deemed a complete digest of the law of principal and agent—a branch of jurisprudence which is here of the highest importance and most frequent utility. The elaborate opinion of the New York Court of Appeals, in the celebrated case of the New York Mechanics' Bank against the New Haven Railroad Company, is given in full in the appendix.

EDWARDS' CHANCERY REPORTS.Four Vols. Price $20.*

REPORTS OF CHANCERY CASES DECIDED IN THE FIRST CIRCUIT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK by the Hon. William T. McCoun, Vice-Chancellor. By CHARLES EDWARDS, counselor at law.

EDWARDS ON BAILMENTS.Price $4 50.*

A TREATISE ON THE LAW OF BAILMENTS. BY ISAAC EDWARDS, COUNSELOR AT LAW. Chapter 1: On Bailments.—Chapter 2: On Deposits.—Chapter 3: Gratuitous Commissions or Mandates.—Chapter 4: Gratuitous Loans.—Chapter 5: Pledges or Pawns.—Chapter 6: Contracts for Hire.—Chapter 7: Of Innkeepers.—Chapter 8: Common Carriers; Carriers of Passengers. The above chapters are very full and complete.

[From the NEW YORK EVENING POST.]

"The most perfect legal treatise in the English language was written upon the Law of Bailments, many years ago, by Sir William Jones. No subsequent writer has been able to do more than apply the principles there laid down, with incomparable clearness and elegance, to the new conditions developed by the progress of human society. That was all that Judge Story was able to do for his generation, and that is all that Mr. Edwards has attempted for his; unlike his immediate predecessor, however, confining himself exclusively to cases arising under the common law, without reference to the civil law. The importance of the Law of Bailments, and the variety of its applications to the affairs of life, has vastly increased since the days of Sir William Jones, and even since Mr. Story's work was finished, most especially in regard to the carriage of freight and passengers by the new modes of transportation by railroads and steam-vessels, which have very recently come into general use. This subject is very fully and satisfactorily treated, by Mr. Edwards, under the head of 'Common Carriers,' and 'Carriers of Passengers,' which subject occupies about 200 pages of the work." The reader will find here the most complete collection of adjudged cases, in the English and American Courts, upon these subjects, that has ever been made."

EDWARDS ON BILLS OF EXCHANGE AND PROMISSORY NOTES.Price $5 50.*

A TREATISE OF BILLS OF EXCHANGE AND PROMISSORY NOTES. BY ISAAC EDWARDS, counselor at law.

[From the NEW YORK JOURNAL OF COMMERCE.]

The materials of this work being based on the decisions of our own courts, it does not come into competition with any English work on the subject; nor can it be deemed a rival of anything which has yet appeared in this country. The object has been to ascertain the law and state it in brief terms, with such illustrations as seemed calculated to develop and explain the reason on which it is founded. Estimating the importance of the subject with reference to the amount of property at stake in the shape of bills and notes, there never has been a time when it called for greater accuracy and discrimination than now, or invited the attention of merchants and professional men with equal urgency.

[From the NEW YORK COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER.]

As the latest decision is deemed the highest authority in legal matters, the latest treatise or digest of cases on any branch of the law must be of the greatest value to practitioners, provided, of course, that it be faithfully compiled and judiciously arranged. These requirements being met by the volume before us, we may justly recommend Mr. Edwards' treatise to the gentlemen of the bar. It is pre-eminently an American law book, incorporating the substance of nearly two thousand American decisions with the principles of law regarding negotiable paper established by the adjudications of the English Courts, and setting forth in notes the statutes of the states in which the commercial law is not adopted. By way of appendix, a translation is given of that part of the Commercial Code of France relating to bills of exchange and promissory notes. The index is very minute, and will enable the reader to find in a moment what the law is on any point of the subject. The work is primarily adapted to the use of lawyers, but it will be scarcely less useful to merchants and bankers.

GRAHAM AND WATERMAN ON NEW TRIALS.

Second Edition. Three Vols. Price $16.

A TREATISE ON THE PRINCIPLES OF LAW AND EQUITY WHICH GOVERN COURTS IN THE granting of New Trials, in Cases Civil and Criminal. With copious Notes and References to the American and English Decisions. By GRAHAM & WATERMAN.

[FROM THE NEW YORK COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER.]

"There is no title in the law on which a new and copious treatise was more needed by practitioners than on New Trials. When David Graham published his treatise in 1834, it was welcomed by the profession almost as a godsend, for it cultivated an important field which Grant in his 'Summary,' and Morgan in his 'Essay,' had barely skimmed over. The death of Mr. Graham unfortunately prevented him from revising and preparing a second edition of his work; for some years it has been out of print, and although so highly esteemed that sums considerably beyond the original cost have been offered for copies, the publishers have delayed the publication of a second edition until now. This edition has been revised and corrected with great care, and is improved by a full analysis of each chapter, which much facilitates consultation. Mr. Graham's treatise comprises one volume of 630 pages. It is the text, as it were, of Mr. Waterman's more copious commentary, which is an entirely new treatise of nearly 1,700 pages, forming Volumes II and III of the complete work, to be hereafter known as Graham and Waterman on New Trials. The whole body of the American and English decisions, the reports of the courts of every State in the Union, and the reports of every court in Great Britain, have been sifted, and all the cases pertinent to the theme carefully analyzed, for the purposes of this work. Nearly a thousand cases are cited in the first volume by Graham, while in the second and third volumes by Waterman the number of cases quoted exceeds three thousand eight hundred, making in all nearly five thousand cases, collected and arranged in one systematic work. We think it may fairly be said to exhaust the subject.

"Mr. Graham's treatise having long been a text-book in the hands of the profession, it would be superfluous to speak minutely of its contents. Mr. Waterman opens his part of the work with a general view of the subject of trial by jury, and of the ancient and modern methods of correcting a wrong verdict. It appears that 'anciently, the principal remedy for reversing a verdict, improperly given, was by writ of attain. The inquiry was made by a jury, double the number of those who rendered the alleged false verdict, and if they found the verdict a false one, the judgment by the common law was, that the jurors should become infamous; should forfeit their goods, and the profits of their lands; should themselves be imprisoned, and their wives and children thrown out of doors; should have their houses razed, their trees extirpated, and their meadows ploughed; and that the plaintiff should be restored to all that he lost by reason of the unjust verdict. A law so terribly severe could not be executed, and by subsequent statutes, which were made perpetual by 13 Eliz. c. 25, the punishment was diminished to perpetual infamy and a pecuniary fine.' According to Blackstone, 'there are instances in the year books, in the reigns of Edward III, Henry IV, and Henry VII, of judgments being stayed, even after a trial at bar, and new venies awarded, because the jury had eat and drank without the consent of the judge, and because the plaintiff had privately given a paper to a jurymen before he was sworn.' And upon these the Chief Justice Glynn, in 1655, grounded the first precedent that is reported in our books for granting a new trial upon account of excessive damages given by the jury; apprehending, with reason, that notorious partiality in the jurors was a principal species of misbehavior.

"In the chapter following the historical view from which we extract these antiquities, Mr. Waterman discusses the jurisdiction of courts in granting new trials; and in succeeding chapters he considers in detail the various causes for granting such relief; for example,—want of, or insufficient, notice of trial; defects in the summoning and drawing of jurors; disqualification of jurors, from interest, relationship, conscientious scruples, age, alienage, mental or bodily disease, &c.; tampering with the jury; bias or hostility of jurors; misconduct of the jury; misruling or misdirection of the judge; surprise; newly discovered evidence; excessive or inadequate damages; verdict against law or evidence, &c.; and the concluding chapter is devoted to the consideration of the principles by which courts of equity are governed in granting new trials.

"The time and labor expended, in compiling a work so comprehensive and elaborate, must have been very great, and can scarcely fail to be appreciated by the profession. In truth, the work will henceforth be an indispensable part of the library of every lawyer who practices in courts of record in any State of the Union. It is also probable that it will be reprinted in England, where, as well as here, it is unrivaled."

"Mr. Howard has added largely to his reputation by this Code. He has been identified with the Code since its formation, and has had much experience in its practice, having reported sixteen volumes of Practice Reports, and they have met the approval of the Judges and Profession at large. Eighteen Vols. Price $63.

REPORTS OF CASES ARGUED AND DETERMINED IN THE SUPREME COURT, AT SPECIAL TERM, with the Points of Practice decided, from October Term, 1844, to May, 1860. By NATHAN HOWARD, Jun., counselor at law.

Howard's Practice Reports are especially interesting and useful, on account of their being the main and almost exclusive exponents of the New York Practice under the Constitution of 1846, and Code of Procedure. Other similar publications there have been, but their existence has been of a comparatively short duration, while Mr. HOWARD has pursued the even tenor of his way, giving to the public, regularly and undeviatingly, the decisions of the courts from the year 1844 to the present time. It may therefore be said unhesitatingly that this is the only reliable series of reports upon the New York Practice. They have an established reputation and are received as authority in all our courts. They will be found very useful in states having a similar Code to that of New York.

By S. MCCALL, counselor at law.

After the New York Code came into operation, the publishers of the above work were frequently applied to, by members of the bar, from every section of the state, for a manual of forms which should embrace the whole field of practice, and not be confined, as most similar works are, to the pleadings. In 1852, they had the pleasure of satisfying this want, by the production of the very useful book of Mr. MCCALL; which proved entirely reliable, although at that time the Code had been but recently adopted, and there were, in consequence, but few decisions defining and construing it. Subsequent amendments of the Code, however, rendered a change in the phraseology and scope of some of the forms necessary. These changes have been made in this edition; and the work has been carefully revised, and enlarged by the introduction of one hundred and twenty-five new forms. It now covers the whole range of practice, from a simple affidavit to the most technical special proceeding. The forms selected are such as have been used by leading practitioners, and obtained the approval of the higher courts.

In those states which have a Code similar to that of New York, this work will be found a convenient and safe guide.

PARKER'S CRIMINAL REPORTS.

Two Vols. Price $8 50.

REPORTS OF DECISIONS IN CRIMINAL CASES MADE AT TERM, AT CHAMBERS, IN THE COURTS of Oyer and Terminer of the State of New York. By AMASA J. PARKER.

The want of criminal reports has long been seriously felt. Very few decisions have found their way into the Supreme Court reports. The necessity for such reports is as obvious and as urgent as is that which has led so universally to the reporting of decisions in civil controversies. This want is being most ably supplied by AMASA J. PARKER, Esq., one of the Judges of the New York Supreme Court, in the series of criminal reports now being issued by him. No one better qualified than he could have undertaken the task, and his position as judge affords him unusual facilities, not only in obtaining the most important cases, but also in acquiring correct information relative to them. These reports are destined to take the highest rank among similar publications. The volumes already published contain many cases of great interest and value. We would especially call attention to The People v. Thurston, and The People v. Robinson, in the second volume. Every magistrate and district attorney, and every lawyer practicing in criminal courts, should obtain Parker's Reports without delay.

PHILLIPPS ON EVIDENCE.Fourth Edition. Three Vols. Price $18.*

A treatise on the Law of Evidence. In three volumes, with Notes by ESEK COWEN, formerly one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of the State of New York; assisted by NICHOLAS HILL, JR., counselor at law, and late State Reporter. With additional Notes and References to the English and American Cases to the present time, by J. MARSDEN VAN COTT, counselor at law. Fourth Edition, by ISAAC EDWARDS, counselor at law, author of "Edwards on Bailments," and "Edwards on Bills and Promissory Notes."

This edition comprises the whole of the English text, and Cowen & Hill's and Van Cott's notes. The whole work has been rearranged and rewritten, and a great number of new and valuable notes added.

Every precaution has been taken to render the present edition of this work superior to any that has been published upon the subject. Particular attention has been paid to the indexes and table of cases, to have them full and accurate.

Notwithstanding numerous treatises on the Law of Evidence, the work of Mr. Philipps maintains an extraordinary pre-eminence. In England it has passed through nine editions. No mere abridgment (such as all the American works on evidence may properly be denominated) can supply its place. It is both elementary and practical, and is equally important to the student and practicing lawyer.

[From A. J. PARKER.]

Messrs. Banks & Brothers:—Gentlemen,—I have examined with some care your new edition of Philipps' Evidence with Cowen and Hill's Notes, edited by Mr. Edwards. It is certainly a work of great value and cannot fail to be highly appreciated by the Profession. To the Notes of Cowen and Hill, already of world-wide celebrity, are added those by Mr. Edwards, which bring down the references to the present time. These seem to have been faithfully prepared. I think the arrangement is also improved, by bringing all the Notes into more convenient proximity to the text. This work now possesses the great advantage of enabling the professional practitioner or student, in examining a rule of evidence, to see at a glance a synopsis of all the decisions bearing upon it, and, by the aid of the notes, to pursue the investigation by the examination of the authorities bearing upon the subject.

[From AMOS DEAN.]

Messrs Banks & Brothers:—Gentlemen,—I think the arrangement of this work is admirable. The Profession I think all felt before, that, although the work presented an immense body of valuable law, yet its arrangement was such that it was difficult to find just the thing that was wanted, and hence its usefulness was greatly diminished. It now appears easy of reference, with indexes to each volume. It is a splendid monument of human industry, and I trust you will derive from it all that your enterprising spirit so richly deserves.

[From the COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER.]

In New York, as in England, no person offered as a witness is now excluded by reason of incapacity from interest, and even the parties to actions at law are competent witnesses. The law of evidence has been subjected to substantially the same alteration in Connecticut, Vermont, Ohio, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Mississippi, Wisconsin, Maine, Rhode Island, and probably other states. In view of this radical amendment and of various other modifications, a new edition of this standard work was absolutely required, and must be eagerly welcomed by the legal profession. Greenleaf's treatise on evidence is so purely elementary, that it is more useful to the student than to the actual practitioner of the law; but this great work of Philipps (as revised and enlarged by himself and Justice Arnold in ten successive English editions, and copiously annotated, first by Judge Cowen and Nicholas Hill, next by J. M. Van Cott, and now by Mr. Edwards, in four successive American editions) is the most elaborate, comprehensive and thorough digest or abridgment of the English and American law of evidence that has ever been compiled, and may truly be said to exhaust the subject. The three volumes of the present edition contain, in the aggregate, nearly three thousand pages of compactly printed matter, analytically arranged and minutely indexed, supplying an inexhaustible armory of arguments and precedents, to be readily found when needed in forensic contests.

REEVE'S DOMESTIC RELATIONS.Second Edition. Price $3.THE REVISED STATUTES OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

AUTHORIZED EDITION. CERTIFICATE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

Fifth Edition. Three Volumes. Price $15.

THE REVISED STATUTES OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, AS ALTERED BY SUBSEQUENT legislation, together with the un repealed statutory provisions of a general nature, passed from the time of the revision to the close of the session of the Legislature of 1858, arranged in the manner of the Revised Statutes. To which are added references to judicial decisions in relation to their provisions, and explanatory notes. Prepared by AMASA J. PARKER, GEORGE WOLFORD and EDWARD WADE, counselors at law.

PREFACE TO THE PRESENT EDITION.—In preparing this edition of the Revised Statutes, the editors have followed the general plan adopted in the second and fourth editions. That plan will be found particularly detailed in the preface to the fourth edition, and in the extract from the preface to the second edition, herewith published.

All the public statutes now in force in this state, including those passed at the last session of the legislature, are embodied in this edition, and placed under their appropriate heads. (In preparing the text, the previous editions have been carefully examined and all errors found therein corrected.)

To the notes and references of the fourth edition, which have been adopted after critical examination, there have been added notes explanatory of subsequent legislation and full references to the decisions made since 1851, in the court of appeals, the supreme court, and the superior court of the city of New York. References are also given to Parker's Criminal Reports, Bradford's Reports, and Howard's Practice Reports.

The great amount of legislation since the publication of the fourth edition, particularly on the subjects of schools and taxation, and the general acts of incorporation, with the special legislation applicable to the city of New York, were found to have swelled the work to so great a size as to render three volumes indispensable. Such a change was found also not inappropriate to a proper division of subjects, and it is believed it will be deemed to have given a more convenient size to each volume.

The index has been prepared with great labor, and will be found to be very full and well arranged for reference.

AMASA J. PARKER,      GEORGE WOLFORD,      EDWARD WADE.

WE BEG LEAVE TO CALL ATTENTION TO THE FOLLOWING :

The Hon. H. Denio says:—I do not doubt but that this work will be found valuable.

The Hon. Wm. S. Allen, of Oswego, N. Y., says:—It is in many respects an improvement on the fourth edition.

The Hon. Amos Dean says:—The Profession can rely with great confidence on the general accuracy of the edition. That which, in my opinion, is particularly commendable and will be in a more especial manner acceptable, is a most thorough, minute and well-displayed index.

J. Mullen, Watertown, says:—It is a well-arranged and in all respects a valuable edition of the Statutes.

Noah Davis, Jr., Albion, says:—The arrangement seems to be admirable and the index copious and complete.

Hon. T. O. Johnson, Corning, says:—These volumes are issued in a style highly creditable to the publishers, and reflect much credit upon the skill, industry and accuracy of the eminent legal gentlemen who have prepared them for the publishers.

The Hon. D. Pratt, Syracuse, says:—I am well pleased with the manner in which the Statutes are arranged. The index is admirable.

The Hon. E. Darwin Smith, Rochester, says:—It was time a new edition was printed and it is prepared in a fine manner.

With letters from Hon. Judges Comstock, Johnson, Selden, of the Court of Appeals, and Hon. Judges Shankland, Harris, Davies and others of the Supreme Court.

SMITH'S COMMENTARIES ON STATUTORY AND CONSTITUTIONAL LAW.

Price $5.

COMMENTARIES ON STATUTE AND CONSTITUTIONAL LAW, AND STATUTORY CONSTITUTIONAL Construction, containing an Examination of Adjudged Cases on Constitutional Law, under the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the respective States, concerning Legislative Power, and also the Consideration of the Rules of Law in the Construction of Statutes and Constitutional Provisions. By E. FITCH SMITH, counselor at law.

[FROM THE NEW YORK LEGAL OBSERVER.]

We have for some time past intended to direct the attention of the legal profession to the Hon. E. Fitch Smith's "Commentaries on Statute and Constitutional Law and Constitutional Construction." Instead of a review of these Commentaries, we have concluded to present to our readers some of the many testimonials which, at our request, the publishers have furnished us. In the Belknap Gazette, published in New Hampshire, we find these Commentaries thus alluded to:

"Mr. Editor,—Permit me, through the columns of your useful paper, to congratulate the profession upon the appearance of the Hon. E. Fitch Smith's 'Commentaries on Statute and Constitutional Law.'

"The first five chapters in this learned work contain the origin and history of legislation among the ancient governments—of legislation in England—of legislation in the colony of Virginia—of legislation in the colonies of New Plymouth and Massachusetts Bay, and in the Connecticut colony—and then proceeds, sixthly, to treat of the legislative power of the states, and the bills of rights of the respective states. Chapter 7th, of legislative authority irrespective of any constitutional restrictions upon legislative power, &c. 8th, of constitutional restrictions upon legislative power, under the Constitution of the United States—first, as applicable to the federal government, and second, as applicable to the state governments, and the construction put upon such restrictive clauses. 9th, of constitutional restrictions upon legislative power, under the constitutions of the respective states, and the construction of such restrictive clauses. 10th, of legislative and judicial interpretation. 11th, of the division, qualities and incidents of statutes. 12th, of interpretation and construction of particular words. 13th, of contemporaneous exposition. 14th, of statutes in Pari Materia. 15th, of affirmative and negative statutes. 16th, of equitable construction of penal statutes. 18th, of the construction of penal statutes. 19th, of the repeal of statutes. 20th, of public and private statutes; and 21st, of the proofs of the existence of statutes.

"It will at once be seen how indispensable a thorough knowledge of the subjects treated of in this work is to every lawyer and legislator. The works of Judges Kent and Story, upon the several subjects found in Judge Smith's Commentaries, have been read with much pleasure and instruction. But those works combined do not present but parts of the great whole treated of in the Commentaries under consideration. The latter may well be called an American work, written in the true spirit of our free institutions, based upon American authorities, supported by lucid arguments, drawn from the vital principles of our government, and such constructions as have long received the unqualified approbation of our own judiciary. After some examination, I hope not to render myself obnoxious to contradiction, by saying that, after the careful perusal of these Commentaries, every jurist will cheerfully acknowledge the superiority of this work over any others now extant, treating upon the same general subjects.

"I have now no time, if I had the ability, to make an analytical review of Judge Smith's very useful Commentaries. My only design, in taking up the pen upon this subject, was to call the attention of the public, and jurists in particular, to this new and valuable treatise, with a view of conferring a favor and rendering some service, by the information, to those who are supposed to be more directly interested in such a work. I hope the distinguished author will receive a reward commensurate with that great amount of labor and splendor of achievement."

We understand the article above quoted emanated from the pen of the late attorney-general, a distinguished and learned constitutional lawyer.

The following extracts are taken from Hunt's Merchants' Magazine:

"A work, fully and ably treating the subject of statutory and constitutional law, has been much needed and the learned labors of Mr. Smith have resulted in an exceedingly seasonable publication. Of one fact the book furnishes conclusive prima facie proof, and a refutation of a prevailing notion. We are often told that the days of profound scholarship, of 'learned tomes' (as the phrase runs), are gone. But that, in one branch at least of human learning, there are still to be found deep thought and patient study, such books as these Commentaries conclusively prove; and if we are told that we have no longer the huge folios of former days, we answer that the fashion, rather than the size of the volume, has changed, and we point, for proof, to Mr. Smith's octavo of a thousand pages.

"The direction of modern legal scholarship has changed, but it has lost nothing in profundity. No longer puzzling over the subtleties of the schools, it finds enough to do in grappling with the momentous questions and pressing interests of the present; and no longer finding time for the refinements of a logic which afforded gratification to a learned complacency, rather than yielding practical good, it has need of all its time and powers to keep up with the developments of an active age, and in endeavoring to reduce to rule and system the notions and opinions, the necessary modifications of old rules, called forth by new events and the changing aspect of society.

"We speak not only with reference to our own country, when we call this work seasonable. At a time when all Europe is convulsed with movements, the whole end and aim of which is constitutional change, the shifting of the supreme power of states off one basis to another, with fundamental changes; in short, the inquiry into the sources, nature, extent and limits (if limits there be) of this supreme power of states, becomes momentous and vital. When we consider that it has been for years a mooted point whether there be in fact limits to the power of the legislative or law-making authority, and how pertinaciously the doctrine of the omnipotence of Parliament (as English writers call it) has been attacked and defended, we see how fundamental and at the same time unsettled, are some of the questions connected with this subject. One of the most interesting and elaborate chapters of this work is devoted to this question. Mr. Smith has brought together the opinions of the great text writers on the subject—those of Burlamaqui, Woodcote, Domat, Blackstone and others on one side, and those of Vattel, Locke and Hall on the other, and then proceeds to examine, in detail, the leading American authorities, of both state and federal courts.

"We commend this work, and the subject which it treats, to the study, not only of the American lawyer, but of the American legislator, the American merchant, and, we may add, to every citizen who, as a voter, makes a unit in that aggregate of popular will which expresses itself by acts of legislation.

A distinguished jurist says:—"This subject, so ably treated, is one of the highest interest and importance not only to the lawyer and jurist, but to the legislator and statesman and must commend this work to the diligent study of all those who aspire to an accurate knowledge of the science and true principles of legislation."

A gentleman of high eminence at the Boston bar pronounces these Commentaries "an able, learned and highly satisfactory treatise."

The attorney-general of Alabama says:—"I have been highly delighted in their perusal; I entertain the opinion, and have no doubt that ere long they will be in high esteem among the legal profession."

A juridical writer says:—"Such a work as this has been much needed. In it are discussed, and that in a most able manner, the law and rules of construction of constitutional and statutory enactment. It opens and enters in a bold manner upon a subject which, under our free and republican institutions, presents a wide and interesting field for the exploration of the legal student and juridical scholar in the exercise of judicial and professional learning, and is worthy the careful and attentive perusal of all those who desire an accurate and just apprehension of the genuine policy and real philosophy of our happy and peculiar institutions, or the true basis of human rights upon which they are founded."

Our space will not admit of further extracts at present. We would add, in our opinion, the work of Judge Smith evinces an intimate and accurate acquaintance with constitutional law and other subjects of which he treats. We find in it the impress of a clear and discriminating mind, legal ability as a juridical writer, unsurpassed by few writers of the present day. From the learning and talent exhibited in the numerous judicial opinions of this author, which we have heretofore published, we had reason to expect that a work emanating from his pen would be one of real intrinsic merit. Our expectations in this respect have been fully realized.

These Commentaries also contain an unusual amount of original matter. We were much gratified in the perusal of the logical and impressive argument contained in the opening of chapter nine; in which the author discusses the important constitutional question, "What is a bill (within the meaning of our constitution) appropriating the public moneys or property for local or private purposes?"

The concluding part of chapter seven, from section 149 to 173, both inclusive, contains one of the most bold and masterly arguments which has ever fallen under our observation, upon the difficult and intricate question, "As to the power of the legislature, irrespective of any constitutional restrictions, to pass retrospective laws which shall have a retroactive effect."

That portion of the work which relates to the consideration of the construction of statutes is of great practical interest and utility to the profession, and in it will be found evidence of great research and of legal erudition of no ordinary cast. The author has certainly rendered to the profession great and valuable service in this branch of juridical science, and what has been done has been well and scientifically done.

THE numerous works upon Practice and Pleadings which have been published since the passage of the Code in 1848, would seem, at first view, to more than satisfy the demands of the profession, and forbid the hope that any new work upon the subject could obtain the public favor. But when one reflects, how changing our practice has been, it will immediately occur to him, that all such works must be ephemeral in their nature, and that those first published must have become in many respects obsolete, and in others destitute of much of that information which the practitioner needs.

The system of practice which the Code abolished was the growth of years ; many of its rules and precedents had existed for over a century, and the statute which abolished the forms of all actions and suits then existing, deprived the practitioners of those sure and safe guides by which they had been accustomed to conduct their proceedings. To rebuild a system complete in all its parts, cannot be the work of a day. Years must be spent, and many minds employed before it will become one consistent, perfect whole. But that such a system will be perfected in our state, no one can doubt who is acquainted with the labor, energy and perseverance of the members of the legal profession. Minds schooled in our former system of practice never will be satisfied with the present, till it has acquired all the improvement that learning and talents can give.

Learned and extensive disquisitions upon the theory and practice of our courts never have and never will fully satisfy the demands of the profession. The experience of every legal practitioner bears witness to the convenience of having at hand a work of approved precedents in all the more common forms of pleadings and process which are in daily use.

To provide a set of forms for every emergency would be impossible. To provide those which are in constant use in the hands of every practitioner, is the design of the present work ; and it is believed that most, if not all of them, will be found in the following pages.

In addition to the forms in ordinary actions, precedents have been added in the more common of the various special proceedings, believing that they would not be unacceptable to great numbers of the profession.

T O T H E S E C O N D E D I T I O N .

THE kind favor with which the first edition of the present work was received, together with the rapid sale of the whole of that edition, and the frequent calls for the work since it was out of print, have induced the publishers and the author to submit a second edition to the indulgence of the profession. The work has been enlarged, corrected and adapted to the present state of the practice; one hundred and twenty-five forms have been added, and it is confidently hoped that the student and practitioner will find it a complete book of forms in all those departments in which they need so ready and complete an assistant.

ALBANY, April, 1858.

Exceptions on the part of the defendant.

(First set out the summons, complaint, answer and reply, then proceed as follows:)

County of Albany :

On the thirteenth day of Feb., 1851, at a circuit court held at the City Hall in the city of Albany, in and for the county of Albany, came the parties aforesaid, by their attorneys aforesaid, before Ira Harris, Esq., one of the justices of this court, and the jurors summoned to try the said issue being called also came, who to speak the truth of the matter aforesaid were chosen, tried and sworn. And upon the trial of that issue, the counsel for the plaintiff, in order to maintain the issue, on the part of the plaintiff, gave in evidence that, &c., (here set out the evidence on the part of the plaintiff, noting what exceptions are made to it by the defendant.) The counsel for the plaintiff here rested, and the counsel for the defendant then moved for a nonsuit, on the ground that the testimony submitted did not show that there was a valid or sufficient acceptance of the said bill to charge the defendant (or as the fact may be,) and hence the plaintiff cannot maintain this action. The said motion was denied by the said justice, and the counsel for the defendant excepted to the said decision. and thereupon the counsel for the defendant, to maintain and prove the said issue on his part, gave in evidence, (here set out the evidence on the part of the defendant, and then as follows:) and the said justice did then and there declare and deliver his opinion to the jury aforesaid, and said that, (here set out the charge on the points excepted to, particularly,) to which said opinion of the said justice, the said counsel for the defendant did then and there, on behalf of the said defendant except, and asked the said justice to charge that (the matter on which defendant's counsel ask to charge should be here set out distinctly.) But the court declined to charge further or otherwise than is above stated. To which decision defendant's counsel excepted.

The jury retired, and afterward returned into court with a verdict for the plaintiff for five hundred dollars damages. And because none of said exceptions, so offered and made to the opinion and decision of the said court, do appear upon the record of the said trial, therefore, on the prayer of the defendant, by his counsel, his Honor, the justice who presided at said trial, and made said decisions, hath settled these exceptions according to the statute in such case made and provided, this fourteenth day of February, 1851.

B. was appointed the special guardian of the said infant, for the purposes of the said application, upon his giving the security therein required; and whereas such security duly approved and acknowledged, was subsequently filed by the said guardian in the proper office; and whereas, by another order of the said court, made on the tenth day of June, aforesaid, the said A. B. was authorized and empowered to contract for the sale and conveyance of the right, title and interest of the said infant, in such real estate, at a price not less than that specified in the said order of the tenth of June, and upon the terms and conditions therein mentioned. And whereas, in pursuance of the last-mentioned order, the said special guardian afterwards made his report, dated the twenty-fifth day of June, aforesaid, to the said court, stating that he had entered into an agreement, subject to the approbation of the said court, with L. M., for the sale of all the right, title and interest of the said infants in and to the said real estate, upon the terms and conditions therein mentioned; whereas, by another order of the said court made on the fifteenth day of July, 1857, it was ordered that the said report of such special guardian, and the agreement mentioned therein, be, and the same were thereby ratified and confirmed; and whereas, it was further ordered by the said court, in and by the said last-mentioned order, that the said special guardian should execute, acknowledge and deliver to the said L. Whereas, by an order of the Supreme Court of the state of New York, made on the first day of July last past, reciting that it appeared to the said court, that the personal estate of the said B. D. was insufficient for the payment of his debts, and that a sale of a portion of the real estate of the said lunatic was necessary for the payment thereof, said O. B., who was appointed a referee in said action, and to whom it was referred by the said order and judgment of the said court, among other things, to make such sale; that the said sale be made in the county where the mortgaged premises are situated; that the referee give public notice of the time and place of such sale, according to the practice of said court, and that any of the parties in said action, might become a purchaser or purchasers on such sale; that the said referee execute to the purchaser or purchasers of the said mortgaged premises, or such part or parts thereof as should be sold, a good and sufficient deed or deeds of conveyance for the same. And whereas the said referee, in pursuance of the order and judgment of the said court, did, on the tenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, sell at public auction, at the rotunda, in the Merchants' Exchange, in the city of Albany, the premises in the said order and judgment mentioned, due notice of the time and place of such sale being first given, agreeably to said order; at which sale, the premises hereinafter described, were struck off to the said party of the second part, for the sum of ten thousand dollars, that being the highest sum bidden for the same. To all to whom these presents shall come, I, W. B., sheriff of the county of Albany, send greeting:

Whereas, by virtue of a writ (or two or more certain writs) of execution issued out of the Supreme Court, in favor of A. B. against C. D., to the said sheriff directed and delivered, commanding him, that of the goods and chattels of the said C. D. in his county, he should cause to be made, certain moneys in the said writ (or writs) specified, and if sufficient goods of the last-named person could not be found, that then he should cause the amount of such judgment to be made of the lands, tenements, real estate, and chattels real, whereof the said last-named person was seized at a certain time in the said writ specified, as on reference to the said writ now of record in said court will more fully appear. F., for the sum of eight hundred dollars, he, the said W. F., being the highest bidder, and that being the highest sum bidden for the same. Whereupon, the said sheriff, after receiving from the said purchaser the said sum of money so bidden as aforesaid, gave to him such certificate as is by law directed to be given, and a certificate of such sale was duly filed in the office of the clerk of the Supreme Court, in the county of Albany. And whereas, the fifteen months after such sale, and the giving and filing of such certificate thereof have expired, without any redemption of the said premises having been made. (If the case require, here insert the transfer of the sheriff's certificate to the present owner.)

the sheriff take receipts for the amounts so paid, and file the same with his report; and that he bring the surplus moneys arising from said sale, if any there be, into court without delay, to abide the further order of this court. And it is further ordered and adjudged, that the defendants, and all persons claiming or to claim from or under them, or any or either of them, after the filing of such notice of pendency of this action, be forever barred and foreclosed of all right, title, interest and equity of redemption to as much of said mortgaged premises as shall be sold, and every part and parcel thereof. And in case said premises shall all be sold under this judgment to satisfy the amount now actually due, with interest and costs, it is then further ordered, that the said plaintiff be at liberty at any time thereafter when any future installment of principal or interest shall fall due upon said bond and mortgage, to apply to this court for an execution against said defendant, C. S., one of the defendants, the general answer of the infant defendants thereto, the other defendants not having appeared or answered said complaint, and upon the report of C. P., referee, duly appointed in this action, which report bears date the 25th day of August, 1851, and after hearing counsel on the part of the plaintiff, and of the defendants who have appeared herein, and due deliberation being thereupon had, this court doth order and adjudge that the said report be, and the same is hereby approved, certified and confirmed.

The plaintiffs, W. H. B. and A., his wife, are in right of the said A., seized in fee simple, and well entitled to the one-sixth part of the said lands and tenements. The defendant T. B. S. is seized in fee simple, and well entitled to the one sixth part of the said lands and tenements, subject, however, to a mortgage thereon given to, and now held by S. G., bearing date August 7, 1847, and on which there is unpaid the sum of seven hundred dollars, with interest from the first day of March, 1849.

The defendant E. L. and S., his wife, are in right of the said S., seized in fee simple, and well entitled to the one sixth part of the said lands and tenements.

The defendant J. S. is seized in fee simple, and well entitled to the one sixth part of the said lands and tenements, subject, however, to a mortgage executed by the said J. S. and A., his wife, to G. B. J., of the city of Albany, bearing date the third day of August, 1849, and given to secure the payment of the sum of one hundred and twenty-five dollars, with interest, on demand, the whole of which is still due and unpaid.

The defendant W. K. and S., his wife, in right of the said S., a child of W. S., jr., deceased, are seized in fee simple, and well entitled to the one twelfth part of the said lands and tenements, subject to the dower right of the defendant A. M. S., mother of the said S. and widow of W. S., jr., deceased.

The defendant S. S., the only other child of the said W. S., jr., deceased, is seized in fee simple, and well entitled to the one twelfth part of the said lands and tenements, subject to the right of dower of the said defendant, A. M. S., the mother of said S., and widow of the said W. S., jr., deceased.

That the said defendant, A. M. S., widow of the said W. S., jr., deceased, is entitled to her right of dower in the one sixth part of the said lands and tenements, of which the said W. K. and S., his wife, and the said S. T. are so seized as aforesaid.

The defendants R. G. S. and S. N. S., the only children of S. H. S., deceased, are each seized in fee simple, and well entitled to one twelfth part of said lands and tenements, subject to the right of dower of their mother, S. S., widow of the said S. H. S., deceased, and who has a right of dower in each of said twelfth parts.

And it is further ordered and adjudged, that all and singular the premises mentioned in the complaint in this action, and described as follows: (insert description of premises,) be sold for cash at public auction, in the county of Albany, by and under the direction of C. P., of said county, the referee above named; that the said several lots be sold separately, or in such portions as to the said referee may seem most for the interest of the parties interested therein: that the said referee give six weeks' previous notice of the time and place of such sale, in one of the public newspapers printed in said county where the said premises are situated, and in such other manner as is required by law, and the rules and practice of this court; and that the plaintiffs, or any of the parties to this action, may become the purchaser or purchasers thereof. That the said referee, forthwith after said sale, make report thereof to this court. And after his report of sale shall have been duly confirmed, and the judgment of this court entered, that then he execute a deed or deeds of the said premises, to the purchaser or purchasers at the said sale, on their complying with the conditions upon which the deeds are to be delivered; and that such sale and conveyance be valid and effectual forever. And it is further ordered and adjudged, that the costs of the parties to this action be first apportioned between the said several parcels of land and premises ratably, and paid out of the proceeds of the sale thereof, in proportion to the sums for which they respectively sell: the same to be paid to the respective attorneys of the parties.

And that the said referee in like manner, retain out of the proceeds of the sale, the fees, commissions and disbursements to which he is entitled on such sale. That the said referee do pay and discharge out of the proceeds, all taxes, charges and assessments which may be a lien upon the said premises, or any part thereof; and if the same are upon a part only, then, that such referee pay the same out of the proceeds of such part, and specify the same in his final report. That the said referee pay to S. G., the sum of seven hundred dollars, with interest thereon, from the first day of March, 1849, out of the share or proportion of the proceeds arising from said sale of the defendant T. B. S., that being the amount of the specific lien or mortgage upon his sixth part of the lands and premises aforesaid. That the said referee also pay to G. B. J., the sum of one hundred and twenty-five dollars, with interest from the third day of August, 1849, out of the share or interest of J. S., in the proceeds arising from the sale of the premises aforesaid, that being the amount of the specific lien or mortgage on his one sixth part of the said premises.

And it is further ordered and adjudged, that the said referee ascertain and report whether the defendants A. M. S., widow of W. S., jr., deceased, and S. S., widow of S. H. S., deceased, are willing to accept in lieu and instead of their dower interest in the premises aforesaid, a sum in gross in satisfaction thereof, out of the net proceeds of the respective one sixth part of the said premises, whereof their respective husbands died seized, according to their rights as ascertained in the report of the said referee, and what would be a reasonable satisfaction for their respective interests on the principles applicable to life annuities; and if the said A. M. S. and S. S. consent, or if either of them consent to accept such gross sum, that such referee pay the same to them, or such one of them as shall give such consent, upon their executing, acknowledging and delivering to the said referee, a release to be approved of by said referee, of all their respective right, title and interest in the premises, and every part thereof. But if they, or either of them, refuse to accept a gross sum in lieu of their or her dower interest, then it is further ordered and adjudged that the said referee, after paying the costs and disbursements, taxes, charges and assessments, do for the one so refusing, bring one-third of the one sixth part of the net proceeds of the said sale into this court, to be invested for the benefit of the one so refusing; the interest or dividends thereon, or to accrue thereon, to be paid over to the one so refusing, during her natural life.

And it is further ordered and adjudged, that the said referee pay to the plaintiff one equal sixth part of the net proceeds of the sale of the said premises; one other equal sixth part thereof to the defendant T. B. S., after deducting therefrom the amount of his mortgage to S. G., and the interest thereon; one other sixth part to the defendant J. S., after deducting therefrom the amount of his mortgage to G. B. J., and the interest thereon; one other sixth part thereof to the defendant E. L. in right of his wife S.

That the said referee pay to W. K., in right of his wife S., and to S. S., each the one twelfth part of said net proceeds, after first deducting therefrom the gross sum which shall be paid to A. M. S., in lieu of her dower interest, if she shall consent to receive the same; and if she refuses to give such consent, then to pay the same, after deducting therefrom the amount which shall be brought into court as heretofore directed.

That the said referee bring into court the remaining one sixth part of said net proceeds, being for the shares of the infant defendants, R. G. S. and S. N. S., children of S. H. S., deceased, first, however, deducting therefrom the gross sum that may be paid to their mother, S. S., widow of the said S. H. S., deceased, in lieu of her dower interest on the amount, which shall be brought into court in lieu of said dower interest, as hereinbefore directed, in case of her refusal to accept such gross sum; and that the referee take receipts for all such payments, and file them with his report to be made of his proceedings, subsequent to the confirmation of his report of sale.

And it is further ordered and adjudged, that such title deeds and writings as may be in the possession or under the control of any, or of either of the parties, and as appear to relate to the premises aforesaid, or any part thereof, be deposited with the clerk of this court, in the county of Albany, for safe custody, there to remain for the benefit of all parties interested therein.

And it is further ordered and adjudged, that the purchaser or purchasers of any or either of said lots of land, at such sale, be put into possession thereof; and that any of the parties in this action who may be in possession of said premises, or any part thereof, and any person who, since the commencement of this action, has come into possession of them, or either of them, deliver possession thereof to such purchaser or purchasers, on production of the referee's deed for such premises.

And it is further ordered and adjudged, that the said referee make a report of his proceedings under this order, subsequent to the confirmation of his report of sale, to be made as above directed.

Judgment, June 2, 1852.

This action having been brought on to be heard upon the report of A. B., C. D. and E. F., commissioners appointed by an order of this court, and on reading and filing said report, which bears date the tenth day of December, 1851, by which it appears that the said commissioners have made partition of the premises described in the complaint in this action between the said G. H. and J. K., according to their respective rights and interests therein, as the same have been ascertained, declared and determined by this court, and by which said partition the said commissioners have divided the whole of said premises into two allotments of equal value, and have set off in severalty to the said G. H. one of the said allotments, bounded and described as follows: (insert description,) as will more fully appear by a map of said partition thereto annexed; and also by which partition the said commissioners have set off in severalty to the said J. K. the other of the said allotments, which is bounded and described as follows: (insert description,) as will also more fully appear by reference to said map of the partition annexed to such report. And on motion of M. R., of counsel for the plaintiff, it is ordered and adjudged, that the said report, and all things therein contained, do stand ratified and confirmed, and that the partition so made be firm and effectual forever. Another judgment for partition.

December 10, 1851.

This action having been brought on to be heard on the pleadings in this action, and on the report of A. B., C. D. and E. F., commissioners appointed by and under an order of this court, to make partition of the land and premises mentioned and described in this action, amongst the several parties, plaintiffs and defendants in this action, according to their several rights and interest therein: Thereupon, on reading and filing said report, from which it appears that after first causing the same to be carefully surveyed, and a field book and map thereof, made by a surveyor, by them employed for that purpose, which field book and map is annexed and referred to in said report, they proceeded to divide the said lands and premises among the several parties to this action, according to their respective rights and interests therein, quantity, quality and value relatively considered, and did thereupon allot, assign, and set apart to the said H. J., the one equal undivided third part; to the said H. H., the one equal undivided third part; and to the said L. H., the one equal undivided third part, as tenants in common of all those certain lots described in the said field book, and laid down and distinguished on the said map as lots number (insert description.)

That they did also set apart and assign to the said H. S., to hold in severalty all those certain lots described in the said field book, and laid down and distinguished on the said map as lots (insert description.)

That they did also set apart and assign to the said N. N., to hold in severalty all those certain lots described in the said field book, and laid down and distinguished on said map as lots (insert description.)

That they did also set apart and assign to the said T. N., to hold in severalty all those certain lots described in the said field book, and laid down and distinguished on said map as lots (insert description.)

From all which it satisfactorily appears to this court that the report of the said commissioners, and the partition so by them made as aforesaid, is in all respects, just and equitable.

And on reading and filing said report, and on motion of M. R., attorney for plaintiff, N. S. appearing for all of said defendants, it is ordered and adjudged, that the said report be confirmed, and that the said partition made by the commissioners of partition in this action be, in all respects, ratified and confirmed, and the same is hereby approved and ratified; and it is further ordered and adjudged, that the said partition be firm and effectual forever.

And it is further ordered and adjudged, that the costs of the several parties in this action, including all charges and expenses incurred to effect the partition in this action, be fixed at one hundred dollars and be paid by the parties, plaintiffs and defendants as follows, to wit: The said H. J., H. H. and L. H. shall each pay the one-third of one fourth part, and the said H. S., N. N. and T. N. shall each pay the one fourth part thereof.

That A. B. of the same place, who is the brother of your petitioner, has been from the time of his birth, and still is, wholly deficient in reason and understanding, and to all intents and purposes an idiot, as by the affidavits annexed appears.

The petition further shows that the said A. To the Supreme Court of the State of New York :

The petition of C. D., of the city of Buffalo in the county of Erie, respectfully shows : That A. B., a resident of the city of Buffalo, a merchant, the husband of your petitioner, is now and for more than a year last past, has been an habitual drunkard ; that he is about fifty years of age and has two small children of the age of eight and ten years respectively ; that he is seized and possessed of real estate, consisting of four lots in the city of Buffalo, with the buildings thereon, of the value of about twenty thousand dollars, and of personal estate, to wit, bonds and mortgages, of the value of about ten thousand dollars ; and is now owing debts to the amount of about nine hundred dollars, although the annual income from his said estate cannot be less than about two thousand five hundred dollars per annum ; that about two years since the said A. B. became quite intemperate—so much so as to entirely neglect his business, and by far the greater portion of his time to be entirely unfit for the transaction of any business ; and that for several months last past he has had few, if any, sober intervals.

And your petitioner further shows, that in consequence of the said intemperance of the said A. B., he is rapidly squandering his property, and is constantly defrauded and plundered by others ; and that if he is allowed to have the control and management of his property much longer, he will, as your petitioner believes, soon squander the whole of his remaining property, and your petitioner and her children will come to want. Your petitioner further shows that she was lawfully married to the said A. B. about fifteen years since, and that the two children E. B. and D. B., above mentioned, are the lawful children of the said A. B. and your petitioner.

Your petitioner therefore prays that a commission in the nature of a writ de lunatico inquirendo may issue, to inquire of the habitual drunkenness of the said A. B., directed to such persons as to this court shall seem proper.

Petition for sale or mortgage of lunatic's estate.

(Title.)

To the Supreme Court of the State of New York :

The petition of P. P. and M. P., the committee of the person and estate of the above-named lunatic, (or idiot,) respectfully show that by an order of this court, made on the 22d day of March, 1858, your petitioners were appointed such committee. That as such committee, they have duly made out and verified an inventory of the estate of the said G. H., both real and personal, and have therein stated the value thereof, and the amount of the rents and profits of the said real estate, and of the debts owing by the said lunatic ; a copy of which inventory is hereto annexed. That it appears from the said inventory, that the said real estate consists of several lots in the city of New York, (describe the same particularly,) that the annual rent of the improved real estate is not far from one thousand dollars, that the unimproved property is not increasing in value, but is a tax upon the estate, on account of the various taxes and assessments levied upon the same, to improve the streets around and near the said property. That the value of the personal estate is about five thousand dollars, and consists of bank stock, paying a dividend of eight per cent. annually, as specified in said inventory.

Your petitioners further show, that the following is an account of the debts and demands now existing against the estate of the said lunatic (or idiot) (set forth a list of the debts, with their amounts separately;) that the aggregate amount of such debts and demands is about three thousand dollars, as near as can be ascertained; for the payment of which, in addition to the expenses of supporting such lunatic, the income of his whole estate, real and personal, is wholly inadequate.

Your petitioners therefore pray, that by an order of this court, they may be allowed to mortgage the improved real property, or to sell so much of the unimproved real property, of the said lunatic, as may be necessary for the payment of his debts.

Whereas, by a certain inquisition, taken at Buffalo, in the county of Erie, on the tenth day of January, 1852, by virtue of our commission, in the nature of a writ de lunatico inquirendo, in that behalf duly made and issued, to inquire, amongst other things, of the lunacy of G. H., it was found, among other things, that the said G. H. was, at the time of taking the said inquisition, a lunatic, and did not enjoy lucid intervals, so that he was not capable of the government of himself, or of the management of his lands and tenements, goods and chattels, as by the said inquisition, remaining on record, will more fully appear. And whereas, by our commission, issued out of and under the seal of our said Supreme Court, bearing date the 15th day of January, 1852, sufficient security having been given for the said G. H. by G. D., as is customary in such cases, we did give, grant and commit unto the said G. D. the care and custody of the person, and the possession, care and management of the estate, as well real as personal, of the said G. H., during our pleasure, to be signified in our Supreme court, as by the said commission, remaining as of record, will, among other things, more fully appear. But because, upon full examination in our Supreme Court, before us had in this behalf, it sufficiently appears to us that the said G. H. has recovered of his lunacy aforesaid, and is restored to his right mind, memory and understanding, so that he is capable of governing himself, and of managing his lands, tenements, goods and chattels; and we in this behalf being willing that what is just and right be done to the said G. H.: Know ye, therefore, that we, for and in consideration that the said G. H. is not now a lunatic, but of sound mind, sane memory and understanding, and for divers other good causes and considerations, us in this behalf especially moving, have superseded and determined, and by these presents do supersede and determine the aforesaid commission, in the nature of a writ de lunatico inquirendo, and all process thereupon made, and also the commission to the said G. D., and all and singular the grants and powers in the said commission specified and contained, to all intents and purposes whatsoever; and all and singular the same we annul and make void by these presents; and also the aforesaid G. D. from the care, custody and government of the person of the said G. H.; and from the possession, care and management of the estate, as well real as personal, of the said G. H., we fully discharge by these presents; requiring that the said G. D. shall by no means suffer any person or persons to intermeddle touching the said G. H. or his estate for the future. And the said G. H. to the regimen and government of himself, and all his, we fully restore by these presents.

Court, at Albany, this tenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

Order appointing commissioners and for partition.

At a special term, &amp;c.

(Title of action.)

This action having been brought on to be heard upon the report of A. B., a referee duly appointed, whereby the said referee reported that the premises mentioned in the complaint in this action may be partitioned and divided into four equal parts, without material injury to the rights and interests of the several owners thereof, and that a partition of such premises would be more advantageous to such owners than a sale thereof; whereby the said referee reported the said plaintiff entitled in fee to one equal undivided fourth part of said premises, the defendant L. M. to one equal undivided fourth part thereof, the defendant N. M. to one equal undivided fourth part thereof, and that the defendant W. M. is entitled to the remaining undivided fourth part thereof. On motion of M. R., of counsel for the said plaintiff, no one appearing to oppose, after due notice, it is ordered and adjudged, that the said report be, and the same is hereby ratified and confirmed.

And it is further ordered and declared, that the rights and interests of the several parties to this action, in and to the several lots, pieces or parcels of land described in the complaint in this action, are as stated and set forth in the said referee's report.

And it is further ordered and declared, that partition be made of the lands and premises mentioned and set forth in the complaint in this action, which premises are described as follows: (insert description,) among the parties to this action, according to their respective rights and interests, as the same were reported by the said referee, and have been thus ascertained by this court and established by this judgment.

And it is further ordered, that C. M., H. B. and L. S., three reputable freeholders of the county of Albany, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners for the purpose of making such partition; that the said commissioners, before proceeding to the execution of their duties, as such, shall be severally sworn or affirmed before some officer authorized by law to administer oaths, honestly and impartially to execute the trust reposed in them, and to make partition as directed by this court; and that such oaths or affirmations be filed with the clerk of this court at or before the coming in of the report of the said commissioners hereinafter directed to be made; and that the said commissioners shall divide the said lands and premises into four equal parts, quantity and quality relatively considered, and that they allot to the plaintiff one of the said equal fourth parts of the said premises, to the defendants L. M., N. M. and W. M., each one of the said equal fourth parts of the said premises, to be held and enjoyed by the said parties in severalty, according to their rights and interests therein so ascertained and determined as aforesaid; and that the said commissioners shall designate the part or portions so allotted to each of the said parties, and the boundaries thereof, by sufficient description and monuments.

And it is further ordered that the said commissioners, or any two of them, make a full and ample report to this court of their proceedings in this behalf, under their hands, specifying therein the manner in which they shall have obeyed this order, and describing the lands divided, and the parts or shares allotted to each party, with the quantity, courses and distances of each share, and a description of the posts, stones or other monuments thereof, and the items of their charges in the premises. That the said commissioners, or such two of them as shall sign the report, do acknowledge the same, or cause it to be proven in the same manner that deeds are required to be acknowledged or proven, to entitle the same to be recorded, before some officer authorized to take the proof or acknowledgment of deeds, and that such report be filed in the office of the clerk of this court. That all the said commissioners do meet together in the performance of any of their duties under this order, but that the acts and decisions of a majority of such commissioners when so met, shall be valid.

And it is further ordered that the said commissioners be authorized to employ a surveyor, and to cause all necessary maps and surveys to be made. And all the parties in this action shall produce to and leave with the said commissioners, for such time as the commissioners shall deem reasonable, all deeds, writings, surveys or maps relating to the said premises, or any part thereof.

And it is further ordered and adjudged, that in case partition of such premises cannot be made with perfect equality between the said parties, according to their respective rights and interests therein, unless compensation be made by one or more of the said parties to the other of them, for equality of partition, that then and in that case the said commissioners, or such two of them as may make said partition, ascertain and report the proper compensation which ought to be made for equality of partition; and by which of the parties the same should be paid, and to which the same ought to be allowed. But the said commissioners shall not report compensation to be paid by an infant for equality of partition, unless it satisfactorily appears to them that he or they have sufficient personal estate to pay the same, and his or their shares of the costs and expenses of this action, and all other liens on his or their share of the premises, except in cases where, from the situation of the property and interests of the parties, it cannot be charged upon the share of an adult.

Complaint on undertaking on appeal.

The above-named plaintiff in this his complaint says, that heretofore, and on or about the twentieth day of March, 1849, he recovered a judgment in the Mayor's Court of the city of Albany, (or Albany County Court, or Supreme Court,) against one O. M., as appears by the record thereof in the clerk's office of the county of Albany, from which judgment the said M. appealed to (the general term of) the Supreme Court, and that on such appeal the said defendants, R. D. and S. E., in their proper persons, became pledges and bail for the said M. in the said action then pending, by an undertaking under the Code of Procedure, in manner and form following, that is to say: that if the said M. should pay all costs and damages which might be awarded against him on the said appeal, not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars, and also if the said judgment appealed from, or any part thereof, be affirmed, the said M. would pay the amount directed to be paid by the judgment, or the part of such amount as to which the judgment shall be affirmed, if it be affirmed only in part, and all damages which shall be awarded against the appellant upon the appeal, then the obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect. And this plaintiff further says, that afterwards the judgment mentioned and referred to in the said undertaking, and in this complaint mentioned as recovered against the said M., was wholly affirmed by the Supreme Court, with costs of the appeal, and the costs on the said appeal awarded against the said M. amounted to one hundred dollars, and that the amount of said judgment and interest thereon, and costs so awarded, is two hundred and thirty dollars, which by the said Supreme Court was then and there adjudged to this plaintiff, as appears by the record and docket of the said judgment duly entered and docketed in the office of the clerk of the county of Albany, on the nineteenth day of September, 1851; that execution thereon, issued to the sheriff of said county of Albany, for the collection of said two hundred and thirty dollars, which was returned by said sheriff wholly unsatisfied, and nothing has been collected or paid on said judgment, but the same is in full force, strength and effect, wholly unsatisfied, whereby an action has accrued to this plaintiff to have and receive the said sum of money of these defendants, according to the tenor and effect of the said undertaking.

Nevertheless, the said defendants have not paid the said plaintiff the said sum of money, nor any part thereof, but are justly indebted to the plaintiff therefor in the sum of two hundred and thirty dollars, and interest thereon from the nineteenth day of September, 1851, wherefore he demands judgment against the said defendant for the sum of two hundred and thirty dollars, and interest thereon from the nineteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, together with costs of this action.

Complaint for infringement of trade mark.

This plaintiff in this, his complaint, respectfully shows to this court, that he is the owner and publisher of a certain calendar or almanac, known and distinguished as "Webster's Calendar, or the Albany Almanac," and that as such owner and proprietor he has published the same for a number of years last past, to wit: eight years; that he acquired the title to the same, and the property therein, in the year 1844, by purchase from the then proprietor of the said almanac; that the said almanac has been annually published and known by the said title of "Webster's Calendar, or the Albany Almanac," since the year 1784, as this complainant has been informed and believes; that such publication has been made by this plaintiff, and those through whom he has received title to the same, as the owners and proprietors thereof since the original establishment of the same in 1784 aforesaid; that the enjoyment of said interest and property, so purchased as aforesaid by this plaintiff, is, has been, and if unmolested and not interfered with by said defendant, and those combining with him, would be the source of compensation and profit in the publication thereof.

And this plaintiff further shows, that notwithstanding the long and quiet enjoyment of the said plaintiff in the publication of the said calendar, or almanac, with his well-known trade mark or title, one E. H., the above-named defendant, not regarding the rights, interest and property of the plaintiff herein, has knowingly, willfully and fraudulently interfered with the plaintiff's rights herein, and printed, published, sold and exposed for sale, and advertised to sell, a calendar or almanac bearing the identical trade mark or title long used and still the property of this plaintiff. And by continued wrong doings in selling, and advertising to sell, said calendar or almanac, greatly injuring the trade and business of this plaintiff in the premises. And also by selling the said calendar or almanac, bearing the title or trade mark of this plaintiff, which said calendars or almanacs were of an inferior quality both as to paper and printing, the said defendant injured the business reputation of this plaintiff, whereby the said plaintiff has sustained damage in the premises amounting to five hundred dollars.

And this complainant further shows, that he has repeatedly called upon the said defendant and requested him to desist from his wrong doings and injury to the plaintiff herein, and to pay this plaintiff what, upon a just and equitable accounting, would be due him. And this complainant hoped the said E. H. would have complied with this plaintiff's reasonable request; but now so it is, that the said defendant combining and confederating together, to and with divers other persons as yet to this plaintiff unknown, but whose names, when discovered, this plaintiff prays may be inserted herein, as defendants, and they made parties hereto, with proper and apt words to charge them how to injure and oppress this plaintiff. The said confederates do now absolutely refuse to pay or to secure the payment for the damages done the said plaintiff, and do also refuse to cease selling or offering for sale, or advertising to sell the said calendars or almanacs with the pirated title or trade mark of this plaintiff.

Whereupon the plaintiff demands judgment against the said defendant for five hundred dollars, and interest thereon from the 30th day of January, 1852, together with the costs of this action; and further, this plaintiff prays the aid of this court, that the said E. H., his counselors, agents and attorneys, may be restrained by an injunction, issuing out of this court, from printing, publishing, selling or exposing for sale, or advertising to sell said calendar or almanac, or any calendars or almanacs bearing the title or trade marks of this plaintiff.

M., who at the time of making the said indenture hereinbefore set forth, and continually from thence, until and at the time of the eviction, ejection and expulsion hereinafter mentioned, had, and still has lawful right and title to the said premises with the appurtenances, did enter into the same, in and upon the possession of the said tenements, and ejected, expelled and removed the said plaintiff, against the will of the said plaintiff, by due process of law, from the possession and occupation of all and every part of the premises, (or if only a part set out, what part,) with the appurtenances, and kept and held out, and still keeps and holds out him, the said plaintiff, so thereby expelled from his possession and occupation thereof, contrary to the form and effect of the said indenture, and of the said covenant of the said defendant, so by him made in that behalf as aforesaid, by reason of all which said premises, the said plaintiff has not only entirely lost, and been deprived of the said land and tenements in the said indenture particularly mentioned, and of divers large sums of money by him, the said plaintiff, laid out and expended in

Complaint to dissolve marriage because of non age.

(Title of action.)

This plaintiff, son of A. B., of the city of Troy, an infant under the age of twenty-one years, to wit, of the age of about fifteen years, by C. B., his guardian or next friend, in this his complaint, says: That on or about the fifteenth day of December, 1850, this plaintiff intermarried with one E. F., (now E. B.,) at the city of Schenectady, and that at the time of the said marriage this plaintiff and defendant were, and now are, inhabitants of this state.

And this plaintiff further shows, that at the time of his said marriage, he was an infant under the age of legal consent, to wit, of the age of about thirteen years, and was therefore incapable of contracting marriage, and the said E. F. was of the age of about eleven years.

And this plaintiff further shows, that for a short time after the said marriage, he cohabited with the said E. F., but they have not cohabited as husband and wife for any time, or in any manner, since this plaintiff obtained the age of consent, that is to say, the age of fourteen, which was on the twentieth day of February, 1852.

And this plaintiff further shows, that he is desirous of having the said marriage, between him and the said E. F., dissolved and declared null and void by a decree of this court. Complaint to dissolve marriage because of lunacy.

(Title of action.)

This plaintiff in his complaint, shows to the court, that on or about the tenth day of March, 1849, this plaintiff intermarried with one L. M., (now L. B.,) at the city of Utica, and that at the time of the said marriage, this plaintiff and the said L. B. were, and ever since have been, and now are inhabitants of this state.*

And this plaintiff further shows, that about two years previous to the said marriage, and on or about the twenty-eighth day of February, 1847, this plaintiff had, by an inquisition of a jury, taken under and by virtue of a commission in the nature of a writ, de lunatico inquirendo, issued out of the Court of Chancery, upon the petition of the plaintiff's brother for that purpose, been found to be a lunatic and of unsound mind, not having lucid intervals, and that he was incapable of the government of himself, or of the management of his lands, tenements, goods or chattels, and that he had been in that state for about one year.

And this plaintiff further shows, that upon the return of said inquisition to the said Court of Chancery, an order was entered on the fifth day of May, 1847, confirming the finding of the jury in the said inquisition, and appointing C. B., the brother of this plaintiff, the committee of his person and estate.

And this plaintiff further shows, that from the time of taking the inquisition aforesaid, until the said marriage and until long afterwards, he was a lunatic, and of unsound mind, and incapable of contracting matrimony. And this plaintiff further says, that at the time the said marriage took place, it was well known to the said L. that this plaintiff was a lunatic, under the care of his said committee, and that he was incompetent to consent to such marriage. That the said L. had been a near neighbor of this plaintiff for several years, and had notice not only of his mental incapacity, but of all the proceedings under the commission of lunacy above mentioned.

And this plaintiff further shows, that the said marriage took place and was entered into without the knowledge or consent of the committee of this plaintiff.

And this plaintiff further shows, that he is now perfectly recovered of his lunacy aforesaid, and restored to his right mind, memory and understanding, and has been so for about one year last past; and that by an order of this court, made upon the application of this plaintiff, on the twentieth day of August last, the commission of lunacy issued against him as aforesaid, and the inquisition taken thereon, were superseded and determined, and this plaintiff was discharged from the care, custody and government of his said committee.

And this plaintiff further shows, that since his restoration to a sound state of mind as aforesaid, he has not voluntarily, nor in any manner cohabited with the said L. That this plaintiff is advised that the marriage had and solemnized between him and the said L., as aforesaid, is, under the circumstances attending the same, invalid and null; and therefore he demands that the same should be dissolved and adjudged, and declared null and void, by a decree of this court.

(As in the last form to the *, then) And this plaintiff further shows, that immediately after the said marriage took place, this plaintiff discovered that the said L., at the time of her intermarriage with this plaintiff as aforesaid, was physically incapable of entering into the marriage state; that the uterus and vagina of the said L., were at the time of such intermarriage, and for a long time previous thereto, had been in a diseased, and in a schirrous, cartilaginous and ulcerated state; and unnaturally thickened and indurated, so that the said marriage could not be consummated by the sexual intercourse of the parties.

And this plaintiff further shows, that for about six years next preceding the said marriage, the said L. had been a widow, during all which period of time, as this plaintiff has been informed and believes, the said diseased state of the said L. existed, and was increasing and progressing; and that the physical incapacity of the said L., arising from the diseased condition of the parts aforesaid, was well known to her at the time of her said intermarriage with this plaintiff, and for a long time previous thereto.

And this plaintiff further shows, that as he has been informed and believes, the said physical incapacity of the said L. still exists and is incurable, and so charges the fact to be. Complaint to dissolve marriage because of adultery.

(Title of action.)

This plaintiff says that on or about the tenth day of April, 1842, he intermarried with L. E., (now L. B.,) at the city of Buffalo, and he continued to live with the said L. as his wife, until about the first day of January, 1851, and that from the time of the said marriage they have been, and at the time and times of the commission of the several acts of adultery hereinafter set forth, were and now are inhabitants of this state.

And this plaintiff further shows, that during the time he lived and cohabited with the said L. as his wife, she had three children, to wit: A. aged about eight years, B. aged about six, and C. aged about four.

And this plaintiff further shows, that he is informed and believes that the said L., disregarding the solemnity of the marriage vow, has since the marriage aforesaid, committed adultery at divers times and places ; and especially that the said L., on the twenty-seventh day of December, 1850, at the city of Rochester, did commit adultery and have carnal connection with one T. P. ; and that the said L. did at various other times during the years 1850 and 1851, commit adultery and have carnal connection with the said T. P., at the place last aforesaid and at some other place or places.

And this plaintiff further shows, that he was wholly and entirely ignorant of the commission of the aforesaid acts of adultery by the said L., or any or either of them, until about the first day of January, 1851 ; that five years have not elapsed since he discovered the fact that such adultery had been committed by her ; that he has not voluntarily cohabited with her since the discovery thereof, and that such adultery was committed by her without his consent, connivance, privity or procurement.

And this plaintiff further shows, that as he is informed and believes, that the said L. is now, and for some time past has been living with one W. X. in open and notorious adultery, at Schenectady, and that five years have not elapsed since the commencement of such adulterous intercourse was discovered by this plaintiff ; and that such adulterous intercourse between the said L. and the said W. X. was begun and is continued without his consent, connivance, privity or procurement.

In consideration of the premises, this plaintiff demands the decree or judgment of this court, that the marriage between this plaintiff and the said L. may be dissolved, and a divorce decreed according to the statute in such case made and provided ; and that this plaintiff may have such other and further relief in the premises as shall be equitable.

Complaint to obtain a limited divorce or separation.

(Title of action.)

This plaintiff, the wife of Y. Z., a merchant of the city of Buffalo, by her next friend, A. B., says, that on or about the sixteenth day of July, 1844, this plaintiff was duly married to the said Y. Z., and continued to live with him as his wife, until the tenth day of January last past. That at the time of the said marriage this plaintiff and defendant were, and still are inhabitants of this state.

And this plaintiff further shows that during the time she lived and cohabited with the said Y. Z., as aforesaid, she had two children by him, to wit, Ellen, about three years old, and Jane, about one year old. And that during all the time, she conducted herself with propriety, managed the household affairs of her said husband with prudence and economy, and at all times treated her said husband with kindness and forbearance. But that the said Y. Z., disregarding the solemnity of his marriage vow, and his obligation to treat his said wife, this plaintiff, with kindness and attention, within about two years after their said marriage, commenced a course of harsh, unkind and tyrannical conduct towards her, which continued with very slight intermissions, until she finally separated from him in the month of January last.

And this plaintiff further shows, that on divers occasions, while this plaintiff lived with the said Y. Z. as aforesaid, he was guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment, and of such conduct towards her as rendered it unsafe and improper for her to cohabit with him. That on or about the tenth day of December, 1851, (here specify the several particular acts of cruelty.)

And this plaintiff further shows, that the said Y. Z. was, and is a man of violent passions, of ungovernable temper, and of intemperate habits; and that on many occasions during the time this plaintiff lived with the said defendant, he addressed to her the most opprobrious epithets, and threats of personal violence, and that he repeatedly threatened to take her life. And that in consequence of the cruel and inhuman treatment above mentioned, together with the threats aforesaid, and such brutal and outrageous conduct towards her as rendered it unsafe for her to live with him, or to remain within the reach of his violence, she was on or about the tenth day of January, 1852, obliged to leave the house of the said Y. Z. and go to her friends; since which time she has not dared to return to his said house, or to live with him.

And this plaintiff further shows, that since she left the house of the said Y. Z., he has refused to provide for her support and maintenance; and that she has been, and now is dependent entirely upon her own labor and the charity of her friends for her support. That she is now very destitute and in great want, and that she is indebted to a considerable amount for board and necessary clothing.

And this plaintiff further shows, that within about a year after their marriage, the said Y. Z. received about five thousand dollars as the distributive share of this plaintiff in her father's estate; the whole of which he has applied and converted to his own use. And that the said Y. Z., as this plaintiff is informed and believes, is seized and possessed of real estate to the amount of twenty thousand dollars.

In consideration of these premises, this plaintiff seeks the aid of this court, and demands that a separation from bed and board forever may be adjudged and decreed between this plaintiff and the said Y. Z., and that he may be compelled by a decree of this court to make a proper and suitable provision for the support and maintenance of this plaintiff and her said children; and that this plaintiff may have the care, custody and education of the children of the said marriage, according to the statute in such case made and provided, and that this plaintiff may have such other or further relief in the premises as shall be equitable and the circumstances of this case may require.

Complaint to foreclose a mortgage.

(Title of action.)

The above-named plaintiff complains, that the defendant, J. V., on or about the twenty-first day of October, 1849, executed under his hand and seal, and delivered to this plaintiff a bond bearing date on that day, in the penal sum of eight hundred dollars, with a condition thereunder written, in substance that if the obligor in the said bond, his heirs, executors or administrators, should pay or cause to be paid to said plaintiff, the obligee in the said bond named, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, the sum of four hundred dollars, on or before the twenty-first day of October, 1851, with lawful interest thereon annually, then the said bond to be void, otherwise to be and remain in full force, (as by the said bond, ready to be produced as this court shall direct, will more fully appear.) And the said J. V., and Mary his wife, to secure the payment of the principal and interest mentioned in the condition of the said bond, did at the same time execute under their hands and seals, and deliver to said plaintiff a mortgage bearing the same date with the said bond, and conditioned for the payment of the said sum of four hundred dollars, and the lawful interest thereof, at the time and in the manner hereinbefore mentioned, according to the condition of the said bond; by which said mortgage, the said J. V., and M. his wife, mortgaged, bargained and sold to the plaintiff, the following described premises, with the appurtenances thereto, that is to say, (here set forth the mortgaged premises,) which mortgage was duly acknowledged and certified, so as to entitle it to be recorded, and the same was afterwards duly recorded as a mortgage, in the office of the clerk of the county of Greene, on the twenty-second day of October, 1849, (as by the said mortgage, and the certificate of acknowledgment and of the recording aforesaid, indorsed thereon, and now ready to be produced as this court shall direct, will more fully appear.)

And this plaintiff further says, that as he is informed, E. G., F. H., and J. K., have or claim to have, some interest in or claim upon said mortgaged premises which said interest or claim is subsequent to and subject to the plaintiff's. And no personal claim is made against any of said defendants, except the defendant and mortgagor, the said J. V.

And plaintiff further says, that the sum of four hundred dollars of principal, the amount secured by the said bond and mortgage, together with the interest on that sum from the twenty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, still remains due and unpaid to the plaintiff, and that no other proceedings at law have been had to recover the debt secured by the said bond and mortgage, or any part thereof.

The plaintiff therefore prays the aid of this court in the premises, and that the usual judgment or decree may be made for the sale of the mortgaged premises aforesaid, and for the amount due the plaintiff, for principal and interest on the said bond and mortgage, together with his costs in this action, and that the said defendants, and all persons claiming under them subsequent to the commencement of this action, either as purchasers, incumbrancers, or otherwise, may be barred and foreclosed of all equity of redemption in the said premises; and that the defendant, J. V., may be adjudged to pay any deficiency which may remain after applying all of said moneys so applicable thereto, and that the plaintiff may have such further or other relief as the nature of the case may require, and as to this court may seem proper and agreeable to equity.

B. may be apportioned upon specific pieces of the said premises, or in case it cannot be apportioned upon specific portions of the said premises, that then a portion of the said sum for which the said premises shall be sold be set apart, the annual income of which to go to the said widow; provided, however, that the said widow shall not elect to receive a gross sum in lieu and instead of the income of the amount to be set apart as aforesaid; but in case the said C. This plaintiff, for complaint, says, that on a petition of lunacy, issued out of the Supreme Court, against said B. M., on or about the ninth day of November, 1854, which was duly executed by commissioners therein named, in the county of Albany, where said B. M. then resided, and still resides, and thereby, on the 18th day of November, 1854, it was found, by a jury duly summoned, that said B. M. was of unsound mind and incapable of the management of his lands, tenements, goods, chattels and property, and that he had been in the same state of lunacy for the space of two years and upwards then next preceding; whereupon, on finding said commission duly executed, with the return of the commissioners and jury thereon indorsed and signed, with the clerk of Albany county, this court, on the 16th day of December, 1854, confirmed said finding of the jury, and further ordered, that said P. B., of Albany, be, and he then and there was, appointed committee of the person and the estate of B. M.; and said P. B. filed with said clerk, on or about December 18, 1854, the requisite bond for the faithful performance of his trust, duly acknowledged and approved; and that said appointment remains in full force, whereby said P. B. is still committee as aforesaid.

And this plaintiff says that said H. M. gave a promissory note on or about Nov. 2, 1853, as follows:

Northumberland, Nov. 2, 1853.

$500.        One year from date for value received, I promise to pay N. Bradshaw or bearer, five hundred dollars, with interest.

(Signed)

H. M.

And said Bradshaw, for value received, indorsed over and delivered said note to said B. M., who then and thereby became the owner thereof.

This plaintiff further says, that he is informed and believes that said note has not been paid, nor any part thereof, either to said B. M., before the appointment of this plaintiff as committee, or to this plaintiff since said appointment; that by virtue of said orders of the Supreme Court, said sum of money became due and payable to this plaintiff, and is still due him, he being the owner thereof as aforesaid. Wherefore he demands judgment against said defendant for said five hundred dollars, and interest thereon from the second day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty three, together with costs of this action.

The complaint of the above-named plaintiff shows, that K. B., in his lifetime made his promissory note in writing, and for value received transferred and delivered the same to this plaintiff, wherein and whereby the said K. B. promised to pay to this plaintiff, the sum of one hundred dollars, and interest thereon from the sixth day of August, 1856; that said K. B., on or about the sixth day of September, 1856, departed this life, leaving a last will and testament wherein the defendant was named as an executor, and that said last will and testament has been duly proved and admitted to probate in the office of the surrogate of the county of Ulster, the county in which said K. B. resided a short time before and at the time of his death; that letters testamentary have issued thereon to said defendant, and he has qualified and taken upon himself the duties as executor as aforesaid; that said K. B. did not in his lifetime, pay the said note or any part thereof, nor has the said defendant, since the death of the said defendant, paid the same or any part thereof; that this plaintiff has presented the said note to this defendant and requested the payment thereof, and has also requested the said defendant, that the claim of this defendant against the estate of the said K. B., deceased, be referred to referees according to the statute in such case made and provided; but that the said defendant has refused to pay said claim or demand, and has also refused to refer the said question as above requested. | S. M., Receiver of theproperty of H. P. | } |

| agt.H. P. and W. S.              |   |

This plaintiff, as receiver, as aforesaid, for complaint, says, that N. B. and L. S., of Albany, survivors of A. C., deceased, commenced an action upon promises in the Supreme Court of this state against H. H., by personal service of summons and complaint upon said H. P., within the jurisdiction of this court on the 16th of April, 1857, and such proceedings were had thereon, that the plaintiff by the consideration of said court, obtained judgment against the defendant in that action on the eleventh day of May, 1857, for one hundred dollars and thirty-eight cents, and fifteen dollars and eleven cents costs, amounting to one hundred and fifteen dollars and forty-nine cents, which judgment for the above sum of $115.49, was entered by the clerk of Albany county, on the day last aforesaid, and the roll filed and judgment docketed in said clerk's office on that day; that said defendant then resided and still resides in Rensselaer county; that a transcript of said judgment was filed, and judgment docketed in the clerk's office of Rensselaer county on the fourteenth day of May last;

and on the sixteenth day of said May an execution therefor was duly issued by plaintiff's attorney to, and delivered to the sheriff of Rensselaer county, commanding him to make said $115.49, with interest from May 11, 1857, and make return of his doings in the premises; that said sheriff afterwards on the 24th day of June, 1857, returned said execution to the office of the clerk of Albany county, with his return thereon indorsed showing the execution wholly unsatisfied.

Afterwards, and on the 6th day of July, 1857, the plaintiff in said action, caused an affidavit to be made, setting forth the above facts, as to obtaining said judgment, the filing of transcript, the issuing and return of said execution, and that the said judgment remained wholly unsatisfied, and presented the same to Hon. Ira Harris, one of the justices of the Supreme Court, on the same day, who thereupon, and on the said sixth day of July, 1857, made an order requiring said judgment debtor to appear before H. S., Esqr., referee thereby appointed, at the office of the said H. S., in the village of Greenbush, Rensselaer county, on the said sixth day of July, 1857, at four o'clock in the afternoon, to make discovery on oath, concerning his property; and said H. P., by said order was further forbidden to transfer, dispose of, or in any manner dispose of, or interfere with any property, moneys or things in action belonging to him until further order in the premises, which said order was personally served on said defendant, on the same day, and said defendant appeared before said referee at the time and place in said order specified and severally submitted to an examination under oath, making discovery as to this property; which examination was on the same day, by said referee, certified to said judge, (and said judge thereon afterwards, and upon application of the plaintiff, in said judgment, made a further order on the 18th day of said July, requiring said H. P. to appear before said referee, at the place aforesaid, on the 24th day of July, at four o'clock P. M., to answer further inquiries touching his property; said order forbid him, as in the former order, from disposing of, or in any manner interfering with any property, money or things in action belonging to him; said order was served on said H. P., on the 23d of said July, and he appeared and submitted to a further examination as required by said order; and said referee on said 24th day of July, certified said examination, and reported the same to said judge,) who thereupon, by an order, appointed S. M., of the city of Albany, this plaintiff, receiver of all the debts, property, effects, equitable interests and things in action of said H. P., and further ordered that this plaintiff, before entering upon the execution of his trust, execute to the clerk of this court, a bond with sufficient sureties to be by said judge approved, in the penal sum of $300, conditioned for the faithful performance and discharge of the duties of such trust, and that this plaintiff upon filing such bond in the office of the clerk of the county of Albany, be invested with all rights and powers as receiver according to law. Said H. P. was therein and thereby enjoined and restrained from making any disposition of or interfering with his property, equitable interests, things in action, or any of them, except in obedience to said order, until further order in the premises. Plaintiff further says, that on the 25th of July, 1857, he executed a bond with sureties, as required by said order and the rules and practice of this court, which was approved by said justice, and filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Albany.

This plaintiff further says, that at the time of obtaining said judgment, said H. P. owned and possessed, and still owns and has in his possession a gold hunting watch, guard chain, seals and key, which this plaintiff since the filing of said bond has demanded of said H. P.; that said H. P., with full notice of this plaintiff's appointment and qualification as receiver, declines and refuses to deliver the same to him, pretending and asserting that he has assigned them to the defendant W. S., among other articles, as security for certain alleged indebtedness to him, with remainder or reversion to said H. P., after discharging said alleged indebtedness; that said H. P. is and continually has been in the possession of said watch, chains, seals and key, that the possession thereof has not been changed, and that said pretended sale or assignment is intended by said H. P. and W. S., to hinder and delay creditors, and intended to hinder and delay the collection of said N. B. and L. S.'s. said demand, and as to them is fraudulent and void.

Said watch, chain, seals and key, are alleged by said H. P., to be worth about one hundred and ten dollars.

Plaintiff further says, that said W. S. has been requested by this plaintiff to relinquish his pretended claim on said watch, chain, seals and key, or to deliver or to allow them to be delivered to this plaintiff, receiver as aforesaid, which he declines and refuses to do. This plaintiff therefore prays judgment against the defendant for the value of the property so converted and his damages by reason thereof, being the sum of one hundred and ten dollars, with interest thereon from the twenty-fifth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, or that said pretended assignment be held and declared void, as to creditors of said H. P., and these defendants deliver or cause to be delivered to this plaintiff, receiver as aforesaid, said watch, chain, seals and key, and that he also be adjudged to pay this plaintiff the damages occasioned by said unlawful detention, with costs of this action ; and that said defendants in the meantime be restrained by an order, from selling, disposing of, or intermeddling with said watch, chain, seals and key, till the further order of this court.

hold to this plaintiff and his heirs forever ; and that the said A. B. departed this life on the twentieth day of July, 1851, without having revoked or altered his said will ; and the same has been duly proved as a will of real estate, as appears by the probate and record thereof, in the office of the surrogate of the county of Gréene. And this plaintiff further says that this defendant is now wrongfully in possession of the said premises, and wrongfully claims a right thereto, and although often requested, has refused and still refuses to deliver up the said premises to this plaintiff. The premises devised in said will, and wrongfully retained by the said defendant, are described as follows, to wit : (here insert description of premises.)

Answer of arbitrament and award.

(Commence as before.) That after the making of the said several promises in the said complaint mentioned, the said plaintiff and the said defendant submitted themselves by two mutual bonds of arbitration, and engaged in all things well and truly to keep, obey, abide and perform the award, arbitrament and final determination of A. B. and C. D., arbitrators indifferently elected and named as well on the part and behalf of the plaintiff as of the defendant, to arbitrate, award and determine of and concerning all and all manner of action and actions, and cause and causes of actions, and of all controversies and demands whatsoever, at any time theretofore had, made, committed or depending by and between the said parties or either of them, so as the said award should be made by the said arbitrators, under their hands, and ready to be delivered to the parties in difference, or such of them as should desire the same, on or before the twentieth day of May then next. And this defendant further says, that the said arbitrators, before the expiration of the time limited for making their award, took upon themselves the burden of the said arbitration, and having duly made and considered the subject matters in dispute between the said plaintiff and the said defendant, they, the said arbitrators, did make their award in writing under their hands, of and concerning the premises, and of and concerning the said promises and undertakings in the said complaint mentioned, and ready to be delivered to the said parties in difference.

Answer alleging non-compliance with conditions of the policy.

(Commence as before.) That the plaintiff did not before the commencement of this action give due notice or any notice of the loss of the said goods by fire, for which he seeks recovery in this action; nor did the said plaintiff, previous to the commencement of this action, furnish to the said company any statement of the loss of the said goods, as by the said policy is required to be done, and in several other particulars the said plaintiff utterly neglected and refused to comply with the terms and conditions in the said policy set forth and expressed, and the said plaintiff at divers times received into his said store a large quantity of goods known and described as extra hazardous, well knowing that such reception was a violation of the conditions in the said policy contained; and at the time of the said fire, the said plaintiff had in his store a large quantity of such extra hazardous goods, by means whereof the conditions of the said policy were violated, disregarded and broken, and these defendants entirely discharged from their liability on the said policy written.

Answer that plaintiff committed first assault.

(Commence as before.) That said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his action against him, because the said plaintiff just before the time in the said plaintiff's complaint mentioned, with force and arms made an assault upon * him, the said defendant, and would then and there have beaten, bruised and ill-treated the said defendant, if he had not immediately defended himself against the said plaintiff; wherefore he, the said defendant, did defend himself against the said plaintiff, as he lawfully might for the cause aforesaid; and in so doing did necessarily and unavoidably a little beat, bruise, wound and ill-treat the said plaintiff, and rend, tear, damage and spoil the said wearing apparel in the said complaint mentioned, doing no unnecessary damage to the said plaintiff on the occasion aforesaid; and if any hurt or damage then and there happened to the said plaintiff or to his said wearing apparel, the same was occasioned by the said assault so made by the said plaintiff on him, the said defendant, and the necessary and lawful defence of him, the said defendant, against the said plaintiff, which are the same supposed trespasses complained of by the said plaintiff against this defendant.

Answer justifying as to charge of perjury.

(Commence as before.) That before the speaking and publishing the said words of and concerning the said plaintiff, as in the said complaint charged, to wit: at a term of the Circuit Court, held at the city of Troy, in the month of May, 1851, then and there holden before one of the judges of this court, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, a certain issue before then joined in an action brought and prosecuted in this court, by and at the suit of one A. B., as plaintiff, against C. D., as defendant, for the supposed breach of certain promises and undertakings, came on to be tried in due form of law, and was then and there tried by a jury of the country in that behalf, duly taken and sworn between the parties aforesaid; and upon such trial of the said issue, this plaintiff appeared as a witness for and on behalf of the said A. B., the plaintiff in the said action, and this plaintiff was then and there in open court, holden as aforesaid, before the said judge thereof, duly sworn, and took his corporeal oath upon the Holy Gospel of God, to speak the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, touching and concerning the matters in question in the said issue; the said court then and there having sufficient power and authority to administer the said oath to this plaintiff in that behalf; and upon the said trial of the said issue, it then and there became, and was material to ascertain the truth of the matters hereafter stated to have been sworn by this plaintiff.

And this defendant further says, that this plaintiff being so sworn as aforesaid, upon his oath aforesaid, falsely, wickedly, maliciously and corruptly, and by his own act and consent, did depose, swear and give evidence amongst other things, at and upon the said trial, that (here set forth that part of the plaintiff's evidence in which he committed perjury.) Whereas in truth and in fact, (here negative the plaintiff's evidence as in an indictment for perjury.) And this plaintiff did thereby in the said court so holden as aforesaid, upon his said oath upon the trial of the said issue, falsely, wickedly, willfully and corruptly commit willful and corrupt perjury. Wherefore this defendant, at the several times spoke and published of and concerning the said plaintiff, the said several words in the said complaint mentioned to have been spoken and published by the said defendant, of and concerning this plaintiff, as it was lawful for him to do for the cause aforesaid.

The plaintiff A. and the defendant B., are each entitled to one undivided fourth part thereof.

The defendants O. M. and C. his wife, are entitled to one undivided fourth part thereof in right of the said C.

The defendant S., as widow of the said E., deceased, is entitled to a dower right in one undivided fourth thereof, and the said C. and D. are each entitled to one undivided eighth part, subject however, to the dower of S., their said mother.

The estate is in the parties in fee, subject to the marital and dower interests as appear above.

I further report, that the premises described in the complaint are so circumstanced, that in my opinion a partition thereof can be made without material injury to the rights or interest of the several owners thereof; and that a partition of such premises would be more advantageous to such owners than a sale thereof.

All which is respectfully submitted.

Report—that sale is necessary in partition.

(As in the last form to the *, then) and if the said referee should arrive at the conclusion that a sale of the whole of the said premises, or any lot or separate parcel thereof, will be necessary, that he specify the same in his report, together with the reasons rendering a sale necessary; and in such a case, that he also ascertain and report whether any person not a party to this action has a specific lien on the undivided share or interest of any of the parties in that portion of the premises which it is necessary to sell; and that he further inquire and report whether the undivided share or interest of any of the parties in the premises is subject to any general lien or incumbrance by judgment or decree; and that he ascertain and report the amount due to any person which is either a specific or general lien or incumbrance upon all or any of the shares or interests of the parties in the premises to be sold, and which would remain as an incumbrance thereon in the hands of the purchaser: I, the subscriber, referee, as aforesaid, do respectfully report:

That having been attended by the attorneys for the several parties who appeared in the action, I proceeded to a hearing of the matters so referred, after having caused a notice to be published as required by law, for all general lien creditors, by judgment, decree or otherwise, on the undivided share or interest of any of the parties in the premises, to produce to me proof of their respective liens and incumbrances, together with satisfactory evidence of the amount due thereon, and to specify the nature of such incumbrances, and the dates thereof respectively.

I further report, that on such hearing, I took proof as to the facts stated in the complaint, and find the material facts therein set forth are true.

And I further certify and report, that the following is an abstract of the conveyances by which the premises described in the complaint are held, that is to say:

The last will and testament of W. S., the common source of title, who died seized and possessed of the premises in the complaint described.

By such will he devised unto his wife, B. S., since deceased, all the rents, issues and profits and income of his real estate during her natural life, and after her death he gave, devised and bequeathed the same to his four children, E., F., G., wife of R. M., and H., each one fourth part thereof, to have and to hold the same, unto his said children each one fourth part thereof, and to their respective heirs forever. Will dated January 10, 1841, proved and recorded in the Albany county surrogate's office, on the sixth day of July, 1846; that in April, the said W. S. died, leaving his four children and his wife him surviving; that in March, 1851, the said B. S., widow of the said testator, departed this life; that F. S., one of the children of the said W. S., has also departed this life, leaving him surviving his widow, M. S., and two children, to wit: P. S. and R. S.

And I do further certify and report, that the legal estate and interest of the parties in the premises are as follows:

The plaintiff E. S. is entitled to one undivided fourth part.

The defendant R. M., and G. M., his wife, in right of the said G., are entitled to one undivided fourth part.

The defendant H. is entitled to one undivided fourth part.

The defendant M. S., widow of the said F. S., deceased, is entitled to dower in the one fourth part of which he died seized.

The defendants P. S. and R. S., children of the said F. S., deceased, are each entitled to one eighth part, subject to the dower of the said M. S., their mother.

The estate is in the parties in fee, subject to the marital interests therein, and the dower interests which appear above.

And I do further certify and report, that the premises described in the complaint in this action are so circumstanced that, in my opinion, a partition thereof cannot be made without great injury and prejudice to the owners thereof. The premises consist of three city lots, and to lessen their present size would render them valueless. These facts, in connection with the number of the owners and persons interested, render a partition difficult and impracticable.

I do further certify and report, that I have caused the necessary searches to be made, and I find two creditors, not a party to this action, and no more, have any specific lien by mortgage, devise or otherwise, upon the undivided share or interest of any of the parties in the premises, and that those two creditors are G. B., of the city of Albany, and S. G. of the same place, as follows:

E. S. and wife }
to
G. B. }

Bond and mortgage, dated April 5, 1849, given to secure the payment of the sum of five hundred dollars, in two years from the date thereof.

Mortgage recorded in the office of the clerk of the county of Albany, on the fifteenth day of April, 1849. That the whole of said mortgage, with interest from April 5, 1851, is unpaid.

SUPREME COURT.

Judgment for $120, obtained and docketed in Albany county, September 4, 1851, all which is unpaid.

That there is no other general lien or incumbrance by judgment or decree upon the undivided share or interest of either of the parties in the premises.

And I further report that no creditor, not a party to this action, having any general lien on any undivided share or interest in the premises, by judgment or decree, appeared before me on the said reference, to establish his claim in pursuance of the notice published by me, except as aforesaid.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

tained, declared and determined by the said court, as we were by the said commission commanded, in manner following: We divided the whole of the said premises into two allotments, which are designated on the map hereto annexed by the letters A and B, each of which allotments is in our opinion, of equal value, and that, being in our judgment the most beneficial division, all circumstances considered, that could be made of such premises. M. all that certain parcel of said premises designated on said map by the letter A, and which is bounded as follows: (insert description,) as will more fully appear by reference to said map.

And we further certify and report, that the items of the various expenses attending the execution of the said commission, including our fees as commissioners, are contained in a schedule hereto annexed marked C, and forming a part of this our report. And that for the better understanding and more clear elucidation of the shape and situation of the said premises, and of the manner in which such partition has been made by us, we have caused to be made a map thereof, showing what parts of the said premises have been allotted to the respective parties, which map forms a part of this our report, and is hereto annexed, marked D.

In witness whereof, we, the said commissioners, have set our hands to this our report, this 20th day of March, 1852.

Report of sale in partition.

(Title of action.)

To the Supreme Court of the State of New York :

In pursuance of an order made in this court in the above action, and dated the third day of January last, I, the subscriber, referee, duly appointed, to whom the execution thereof was confided, do report :

That having caused a notice of the time and place of sale of the premises mentioned in said decretal order, containing a brief description thereof, to be published, once in each week, for six weeks immediately previous to such sale, in one of the public newspapers printed in the county of Albany, where such premises are situated, and having also caused a copy of such notice to be put up at three of the most public places in the city of Albany, where the said premises are situated : I did, on the thirtieth day of March, 1852, at 12 o'clock, noon, that being the time specified in the said notice, attend at the rotunda of the Merchants' Exchange in said city, the place therein mentioned, and exposed the said premises for sale, at public auction, to the highest bidder, as directed by said order.

I do further report, that the several lots or parcels of land so directed to be sold as aforesaid, were put up for sale separately, and were each and every of them struck off to T. B., for the following sums : Lot No. 1, for the sum of $1,000 ; lot No. 2, for the sum of $2,000 ; and lot No. 3, for the sum of $4,000 ; those sums being the highest sums bidden for the said lots respectively, and the said T. B. being the highest bidder therefor ; which several sums amount, in the aggregate, to $7,000.

That the terms and conditions of such sales were reduced to writing, and made known to the persons attending such sale, previous to putting up the said lots, and were as follows : the purchaser or purchasers of each lot or separate parcel, were to pay ten per cent. of the purchase money down, on the day of sale, and the residue when the sale should be confirmed and the deed delivered. And that the said T. B. has signed the written conditions of sale above mentioned, together with an acknowledgment that he has purchased the premises upon those terms, and he has paid to me the amount required to be paid down.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Final report after sale in partition.

(Title of action.)

To the Supreme Court of the State of New York:

In pursuance of an order of this court, made the twentieth day of January, 1852, I, the subscriber, do respectfully report :

That in obedience to the said order, I have executed, acknowledged, and delivered to L. B., the purchaser of the premises directed to be sold by me, a deed of such premises, on receiving from him the sum of $4,940, the price or sum for which the said premises were sold to him, as mentioned in my former report of such sale, made in pursuance of said order, and bearing date the tenth day of March last past; and upon his complying with all the conditions upon which the said deed was to be delivered.

And I further report that I have paid to the attorney for the plaintiff in this action, the sum of $60, for the costs of the plaintiff as taxed in this action, and have taken a receipt therefor, which is hereto annexed; that I have paid M. S., the guardian ad litem of the infant defendants, the sum of $15, being the amount of his costs, as taxed, and have taken his receipt therefor, which is hereto annexed; that I have retained in my hands the sum of $50, being the amount of my fees and disbursements on said sale; that I have paid to the collector of the town of Watervliet the sum of $15, for taxes upon the said premises; that I have paid the defendant M. C., the sum of $500, being the amount reported due to him upon his mortgage on the said premises ; that I have paid to C. M., $150, due on his judgment against the plaintiff in this action.

And I further report, that the residue of the net proceeds of the sale of the said premises, I have divided and distributed as follows : to the plaintiff, the sum of $1,050, which, with judgment docketed against him and paid as above, is his share of the distributive proceeds ; to the defendant R. M., the sum of $700, which, with the amount paid to satisfy the said bond and mortgage, is his share of the distributive proceeds ; and to the defendant R. C. and wife the sum of $1,200, being their share of the said proceeds, in right of the said wife ; and the remaining share of $1,200 belonging to the infant defendants, subject to the dower interest of their mother, (she declining to receive a gross sum in satisfaction thereof,) I have now brought into court that the same may be invested for their benefit. And that I have taken from the plaintiff and such defendants as have received their shares, their respective receipts for the several amounts paid to them as aforesaid.

And I further report that I have let the said L. B., into the possession of the premises so purchased by him. .

The People of the State of New York to the Sheriff of the city and county of New York, greeting :

Whereas, on the fifth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, by a certain judgment made in our Supreme Court of the state of New York, in a certain action then depending in our said court, wherein A. B. is plaintiff, and

C. D. and E. F. are defendants, it was, among other things ordered, adjudged and decreed, that all and singular the mortgaged premises mentioned in the plaintiff's complaint in said action, or so much thereof as might be sufficient to raise the amount due to the said plaintiff for the principal, interest and cost in said action, and which might be sold separately without material injury to the parties interested, be sold at public auction, by or under the direction of S. N., a referee duly appointed for that purpose, (or by the sheriff of the county of New York.) And also, that the purchaser or purchasers of said mortgaged premises at such sale, be let into possession of such parts as shall be purchased by them respectively, on production of the sheriff's deed for such premises, and a certified copy of the order confirming the report of sale. And whereas, the said sheriff or referee has filed his report of said sale in the proper office, and the same has been duly filed in the proper office, and the same has been duly confirmed by an order of said court, from which report it appears that the premises hereinafter described were sold to M. N., and that the referee's (or sheriff's) deed has been executed and acknowledged and delivered to the said M. N., purchasers as aforesaid, and the said M. N. has not been let into, nor taken possession of the said premises, or any part thereof, according to the tenor of the judgment of the said court, notwithstanding the said M. Wife's petition for alimony and expenses.

To the Supreme Court of the State of New York.

The petition of the above defendants respectfully shows, that the said plaintiff, A. B., has commenced an action, by the service of a summons and complaint on your petitioner, to obtain a decree dissolving the marriage between him and your petitioner ; and that your petitioner has put in her answer by E. And your petitioner further shows, that she is wholly destitute of the means of supporting herself, during the pendency of this suit, or of carrying on her defence and defraying the costs and expenses attending the same. That your petitioner has been informed and verily believes the said complainant has real estate and personal property to a large amount, and amply sufficient to enable him to advance thereout, to your petitioner, such sums as may be necessary for the above mentioned purposes. That your petitioner is informed and believes, that the said complainant is the owner of property to the amount of more than forty thousand dollars, and that his annual income is about four thousand dollars.

Report of sale in mortgage foreclosure.

(Title of action.)

To the Supreme Court of the State of New York :

In pursuance and in virtue of a judgment of this court, made in the above action, by the Supreme Court, and bearing date the ninth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, by which it was, among other things, ordered and adjudged, that all and singular the mortgaged premises mentioned in the complaint in this cause, and hereafter described, or so much thereof as might be sufficient to raise the amount reported due to the plaintiff as therein mentioned for principal and interest, and the costs in this case, and which might be sold separately without material injury to the parties interested, be sold at public auction, by or under the direction of A. B., referee appointed for that purpose; that the said sale be made in the county where the said mortgaged premises, or the greater part thereof, are situated; that the referee give public notice of the time and place of such sale, according to the course and practice of this court, and that the plaintiff or any of the parties of this cause, might become the purchaser; that the referee execute a deed to the purchaser of the mortgaged premises on the said sale; and that the said referee pay to the said plaintiff or his attorney out of the proceeds of the said sale, his costs in this suit to be taxed and also the amount so reported due as aforesaid, together with legal interest thereon from the date of said report, or so much thereof as the purchase money of the mortgaged premises would pay of the same, and that the referee take receipts for the amounts so paid, and file the same with his report; and that he retain the surplus moneys arising from the said sale, if any there should be, in his hands, to abide the further order of the court. And whereby it was further ordered and adjudged, that if the moneys arising from the said sale, should be insufficient to pay the amount so reported due to the plaintiff with the interest and costs as aforesaid, that the said referee specify the amount of such deficiency in his report of the sale; I, the subscriber, referee, residing in the city of Albany, do respectfully certify and report, that having been charged by the attorney for the plaintiff with the execution of said judgment, I advertised said premises to be sold by me at public auction, at the rotunda of the Merchants' Exchange, Albany, on the fifth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight; that previous to said sale, I caused notice thereof to be publicly advertised, for six weeks successively, as follows, viz: by causing a printed notice thereof to be fastened up in three public places in the ward where such premises were to be sold, and three notices fastened up in the town in which the said mortgaged premises are situated, and by causing a copy of such notice to be printed once in each week during the six weeks immediately preceding said sale, in a public newspaper printed in the said county of Albany, which notices contained a brief description of the said mortgaged premises.

And I do further report, that on the said fifth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, the day on which the said premises were so advertised to be sold as aforesaid, I attended at the time and place fixed for said sale, and exposed said premises for sale, at public auction, to the highest bidder, and the said premises were then and there fairly struck off to C. D. for one thousand dollars, he being the highest bidder therefor, and that being the highest sum bidden for the same.

And I do further certify and report, that I have executed, acknowledged and delivered to said purchaser the usual referee's deed for said premises, and have paid over or disposed of the purchase moneys, or proceeds of said sale, as follows, viz: I have paid to the attorney for the plaintiff the sum of one hundred dollars, that being the amount of his costs of this suit, with the interest, as taxed, and have taken a receipt therefor, which is hereto annexed.

I have also retained in my hands the sum of twenty-five dollars, that being the amount of my fees and disbursements on said sale. And I have paid to the attorney for the plaintiff the sum of eight hundred and seventy-five dollars, and have taken a receipt therefor.

And I do further certify and report, that the premises so sold and conveyed, as aforesaid, were described in said judgment, and in the deed so executed by me aforesaid, as follows, viz: (describe premises.)

All of which is respectfully reported to this court.

PROCEEDINGS FOR PARTITION ON THE APPLICATION OF INFANTS—UNDER SESSION LAWS OF 1852, CHAP. 277.

[ No. 576. ]

Petition for the appointment of next friend, and for partition of infants' estate.

STATE OF NEW YORK.

IN SUPREME COURT.—

County of Albany. }

The petition of R. C. and P. W., respectfully show to this court, as follows: The said R. C. shows that he resides in the city of Albany, in said county; that on the 7th day of October, 1851, he was duly appointed by the surrogate of Albany county, (or by this court,) and now is a general guardian of P. W., now aged fifteen years, J. W., aged twelve years, H. W., aged ten years, infants, children and heirs at law of A. W., late of Albany, deceased, all of whom then, and still reside in said city. And said P. W. shows that he is an infant, over the age of fourteen years, to wit: of the age of fifteen years; that he resides in the city of Albany, is a son and heir at law of said A. W., deceased.

Your petitioners, the said R. C., as guardian as aforesaid, and said P. W. for himself, further show, that said infants are not, nor is either of them the owner of, or entitled to any personal estate, except in about five hundred dollars, proceeds of sale of property in one of the administrators' hands, as appears by his final accounting with the surrogate, of which said sum each of said infants is entitled to one twelfth part; that each has a vested interest or remainder of one eighth part of three thousand dollars, money set apart and ordered invested by the surrogate of Albany county, and the interest thereof paid over to L. W., mother of said infants, during her life, for dower in certain real estate of A. W., said infants' father; which said real estate was sold by the administrator under an order of the Surrogate's Court for debts; said widow is still living, and about fifty years of age.

These petitioners, said R. C. as guardian as aforesaid, and said P. W. for himself, show, that said infants have not, and are not entitled to any other real estate than such as is hereinafter mentioned: the whole value of all said infants' interest therein cannot, according to information and belief, exceed the sum of six thousand dollars.

And your petitioners further show, that said infants are each possessed of and entitled to an undivided eighth part as tenants in common with B. W., C. W., M. wife of E. S., S. wife of C. J., and H. W., children of said A. W., and half brothers and half sisters of these infants, each of whom is also entitled to the same interest as each of these infants, subject to the said mother's dower right, in and to all and singular the lots, pieces and parcels of land hereinafter described.

The net annual income of the whole of said lots and parcels of land being about eight hundred dollars, as your petitioners are informed and believe, and that each of said infants' share of the annual income is one twelfth part thereof.

And your petitioners further show, that said widow resides in Albany, and is willing and desires, as they are informed and believe, to have her dower assigned or the property sold, whichever the court shall deem most for the interest of parties concerned. All of said parties, tenants in common with these infants, who reside in this state, are of full age.

And your petitioners further show, that said B. W. assumes to control, manage and collect the rents of all said property, except one house and lot, which is not satisfactory to your petitioners, nor as your petitioners believe for the interest of said infants; and as most unhappy differences exist between said B. W. and some of the parties in interest, which is also to the prejudice of the rights of said infants as the property now is.

And your petitioners further show, that each of the following described lots is improved by having thereon wooden dwellings and structures, all placed on wood or posts, and must soon be subject to expensive repairs, which cannot be conducted in behalf of said infants to advantage, or with economy, and that the interest of said infants requires a partition or sale thereof; and said property is so situated that actual partition cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners, and therefore their interests require a sale thereof.

Your petitioners therefore pray this court to authorize proceedings to be instituted, by action or otherwise, on behalf of said infants, for a division and partition of said real estate, and for a sale thereof, if it shall appear that such partition cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners, and pray the appointment of a competent next friend to conduct the proceedings on the part of said infants, and propose as such next friend H. R., of Albany, who has no interest adverse to said infants, an uncle of said infants by marriage, and E. W. and R. Q., of Albany, as his security.

The said property, of which partition is sought, is bounded and described as follows, viz: (here set forth the property.)

Bond of next friend of infants in partition.

Know all men by these presents, that we, H. R., E. W. and R. W., infants, all of the city of Albany, to conduct proceedings on the part of said infants, to be instituted on their behalf for a division and partition of the real estate mentioned in the petition upon which said order was founded, or for sale thereof, if it should appear that such partition cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners.

Now, therefore, the conditions of this obligation is such, that if the said H. R. shall faithfully discharge the duties of his trust as such next friend, and render a just and true account thereof, when lawfully required, then this obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

SUPREME COURT—County of Albany :

P. W., J. W., and H. W., by H. R., their next friend,

agts.
 M. W., widow of A. W., deceased,
 C. W., B. W. and D. his wife, E. S. and M. his wife, C. J. and S. his wife, H. W., B. P., H. C. and B. M. }

These plaintiffs, by H. R., their next friend, duly appointed by order of the court, for that purpose first had and obtained in pursuance of the statute, complain and state, that on or about the eighth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, A. W., a citizen and resident of the city of Albany, died intestate, seized in fee simple absolute of all the real estate hereinafter described, of which partition or sale is hereby sought. That letters of administration upon said intestate's estate, as they are informed and believe, issued on or about the 14th day of November, 1848, by the surrogate of Albany county, to said defendants M. W. and B. W., who took upon themselves the duties thereof, and have rendered their final accounts; the said M. not having received any money as executrix, and said B. showing a balance on hand, after paying expenses, &c., of about five hundred dollars.

The plaintiffs further show, that they are children and heirs at law of said A. W., deceased, are all infants under the age of twenty-one years, to wit: said P. W. of the age of fifteen years and ten months, said J. W., of the age of twelve years, and said H. W. of the age of ten years, all of whom reside in the city of Albany, and said R. C. is their general guardian appointed by the surrogate of the county of Albany.

And these plaintiffs further state, that they are not nor is either of them to their knowledge or belief, the owner of or entitled to any personal estate except in about $500, proceeds of sale of property of said intestate, and now in the hands of said administrator B. W., of which said sum each of these infants is entitled to one twelfth part thereof; that each has a vested interest or remainder in one eighth part of $3,000, money which was set apart by the surrogate of Albany county, the interest thereof to be paid over to said M. W., widow of said A. W., deceased, and mother of these plaintiffs, during her life, for dower in certain real estate of said A. W., deceased, said infants' father; which said real estate was sold by the administrators, under an order of the Surrogate's Court, for the payment of debts; said widow is still living and about fifty years of age; said B. H., C. M. and S., children and heirs at law of A. W., are each in like manner entitled to one eighth part of said $3,000.

These plaintiffs further say, according to their best knowledge, information and belief, that neither they or either of them, have or is entitled to any other real estate than such as is hereinafter mentioned; that the whole value of said infants' interest therein cannot exceed the sum of $6,000 or $6,500; and that each of these infants is entitled to an undivided eighth part, as tenants in common with B. W., H. W., C. W., M. W. wife of E. S., and S. W. wife of C. J., children and heirs at law of said A. W., and half brothers and half sisters of these plaintiffs, each of whom is also entitled to the same interest therein, (the married women subject to the husbands' rights,) as each of these plaintiffs; all subject to M. W.'s dower right therein, as widow of said A. W.; said B. W. is married to D. H. The net annual income of said real estate does not exceed about $800, as plaintiffs are informed and believe, and that each of said infants' share of said income is one twelfth part thereof.

These plaintiffs further state, that they have been unable to procure the consent of either of the above-named tenants in common, who are defendants, to be made plaintiffs in this action.

And these plaintiffs further state, that it will be difficult and impracticable to make a fair and equitable partition and division of the said lands and premises among the several owners, without prejudice to the owners; the said lands and real estate consisting of houses and lots, of which equal partition according to the rights and interest of the several parties cannot be made.

And these plaintiffs further state, that a sale of the said lands and real estate, and a distribution of the proceeds thereof among the said parties, plaintiffs and defendants, according to their respective rights and interests therein, will be most beneficial to the interests of all the parties interested therein, for the following among other reasons, to wit: each of said lots of which partition or sale is hereby sought, has thereon a wooden dwelling and structures, all placed on wood or posts, and must soon be subject to expensive repairs, which cannot be conducted in behalf of infants to advantage or with economy. These plaintiffs therefore pray for a sale of said lands and real estate, under the direction of this court; and a distribution of the proceeds thereof, among the several persons named in this complaint, according to their rights and interests therein. But in case the court shall be of opinion that the interests of these plaintiffs does not require a sale, then they pray that partition may be made according to the rights of the respective parties; and these plaintiffs further say, that said B. W. controls and leases, and collects the rents of all said real estate, except one house and lot, which owing to an unhappy state of feeling existing between him and some of the other parties in interest, and as plaintiffs are informed and believe, in consequence also of expensive and unnecessary repairs made by said B. W., renders it for the interest of these plaintiffs and proper that a receiver should be appointed to take charge of said real estate and the rents and profits, during the pending of this action, subject to the order of the court.

Said real estate of which partition or sale is sought by this action, is described as follows: (here insert description of the property.)

These plaintiffs further state, that B. P., H. C. and B. M., claim some interest in some portion of said premises as tenants from year to year, but that none of them have any interest extending beyond the current year, ending May 1, 1853.

B. A., Plaintiff's Att'y, Albany.

Albany city, ss: H. R., being sworn, says he is the person named in the foregoing complaint as the next friend of said infant plaintiffs; that he has heard said complaint read, and knows the contents to be true, except as to the matters and things therein stated on information and belief, and as to those matters he believes it to be true.

PROCEEDINGS FOR SALE OF REAL ESTATE OF INFANTS.

[ No. 582. ]

Petition for order to sell real estate of infants.

STATE OF NEW YORK—
IN SUPREME COURT. }

The petition of A. B., of the county of Albany, an infant, over the age of fourteen years, who has no general guardian; and of C. D., an infant under the age of fourteen years, who has no general guardian, by E. F., his mother and next friend, respectfully shows:

That your petitioner, A. B., is an infant of the age of twenty years and upwards, and the said C. D. is an infant of the age of ten years, and that the said infants are two of the children and heirs-at-law of R. P., late of the city of Albany, deceased; and that as such heirs at law they are each entitled to an undivided third part, subject to the right of dower of the said E. F., their mother, of a lot of land, situated in (here describe the premises to be sold;) that said lot is worth about one thousand dollars, as they are informed and believe, but is entirely unproductive, being wild and uncultivated, and unimproved. That the brother of your petitioners owns the remaining one-third of the said real estate above mentioned, subject to the dower right aforesaid.

And your petitioners, the said infants, further show, that they do not own any other real estate than that above described, and that they have no personal estate of any kind, or to any amount whatever, except their necessary wearing apparel.

And your petitioner, the said E. F., the mother of the said infants, further shows, that as the widow of the said R. P., deceased, the father of the said infants, she is entitled to dower in the said real estate mentioned, and that she has no means of support for herself and her said infants, except what she and they may acquire by their own industry; and that it is necessary the said premises, or some part thereof, should be sold, and the proceeds, or some part thereof, be applied towards the necessary education and maintenance of the said infants; and your petitioner, the said E. F., hereby offers to unite in the sale of the premises aforesaid, and to release her right of dower therein, upon condition that one third part of the purchase money be safely invested, and the annual interest thereof be paid to her during her natural life; or that a gross sum be paid to her in lieu thereof, equal in value to her life estate therein, to be ascertained upon the principle of life annuities.

Your petitioners therefore pray, that the said real estate may be sold by and under the direction of this court; and that E. W., of the city of Albany, merchant, who is in no way related to said infants, may be appointed their special guardian, for the purpose of selling the interests of said infants in the said real estate, and L. M. and N. P. are proposed as sureties for the said E. W., as such special guardian, to join with him in a bond in such penalty, and upon such condition as shall be requisite.

Bond of guardian on sale of infant's estate.

To the Supreme Court of the State of New York :

The petition of A. B., executor, &c., appellant, respectfully shows :

That heretofore, the above-named appellant was in due form, by the surrogate of the county of Albany, qualified as executor of the last will and testament of C. D., deceased, and letters issued to and were received by your petitioner.

That your petitioner afterwards, upon the application of X. Y., as one of the next of kin (or a creditor) of the said C. D., was cited by said surrogate to account as such executor. Upon which citation, your petitioner desired of said surrogate, as is provided for by the statute, that such account might be finally settled ; which was so ordered accordingly. That thereupon an account, duly verified, was rendered to the said surrogate by the said executor ; which being unsatisfactory to the said E. F., the respondent herein, as one of the next of kin (or a creditor) of the decedent, the same was controverted by the said respondent, and affirmed to be sufficient (or correct) by your petitioner. An issue being thus formed, the respective parties proceeded before the said surrogate, with evidence written and oral, on the part of the respondent to impeach, and on the part of the appellant to sustain their respective allegations on such accounting.

That after said proof was taken, and a hearing was had upon the matter before such surrogate, a sentence or decree was pronounced by him on the tenth day of May, 1852, by which the appellant was directed to (here set out so much of the order as is claimed to be wrong, and from which the appeal is taken.)

This appellant being advised that the said sentence or decree is erroneous, has appealed therefrom to this court; and states, among other grounds of error therein, the following: First, (here set out the various grounds of error in the decision of the surrogate.)

Your petitioner therefore prays that the said E. F., who is intended to be made a party respondent to this appeal, may be required to answer this petition, and that the proceedings and decree in the above matter in the Surrogate's Court, may upon this appeal be reviewed by this court, and that the sentence or decree aforesaid, for the errors aforesaid or for other errors, may be reversed, modified or amended, as may be agreeable to equity.

And your petitioner will ever pray, &c.

And this respondent is advised and believes, and submits that such sentence or decree, so far as the same is complained of by the said petition of appeal, is just and agreeable to equity.
